Order Execution Of Man Convicted In Blair House Shooting

Death Penalty Is Imposed On Oscar Collazo

Man In White House Guard Shooting Is Sentenced Today

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—Oscar Collazo, Puerto Rican Nationalist who attempted to assassinate President Truman, was sentenced today to die in the electric chair on October 26 for the murder of a White House guard.

Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, in setting the October date for execution, pointed out that an apeal planned by Collazo's attorneys could not be acted upon before that date.

He pronounced the sentence—mandatory for first degree murder in the District of Columbia—after Collazo made a brief but impassioned address to the court.

Collazo, who was convicted of slaying Guard Leslie Coffelt during the November 1 gun battle at Blair House, told the judge:

"I know the American government has the power to kill me—but you will never be able to kill what I stand for."

Not Pleading for Life

Collazo added: "I didn't come to this court today to plead for my life—I am pleading for the cause of the liberty of my people."

Goldsborough pointed out he had no choice but to sentence the 37-year-old factory worker to death, and added:

"The court doesn't think that you're inherently an evil man. The truth is that I am sorry for you—very sorry."

The judge added, however,

"The court hasn't any doubt that you are morally and legally guilty of murder in the first degree."

Collazo showed no emotion when the verdict was pronouced, and flashed a smile at his lawyers as he left the courtroom. His wife, Rose, was present when the sentence was pronounced.

Chief Defense Attorney Leo A. Rover said an appeal would be filed within a few days.

Dr. Rutledge's Suicide Fails To End Long Bitter Dispute

HOUSTON, Tex., April 6—(INS)—A bitter dispute between police and attorneys—like many that marked Dr. Robert C. Rutledge's fight against a conviction for murdering his wife's seducer—continued today even after his suicide death on a lonely road near Houston.

A tragic last letter the pediatrician wrote to his willowy, honey-blonde wife, Sydney, before he died in his gas-filled auto last night prevented the suicide from officially closing one of the nation's most sensational "unwritten law" cases.

The letter—written only one day after the Iowa Supreme Court upheld Dr. Rutledge's second-degree murder conviction for the 1948 slaying of Byron Hattman in a Cedar Rapids, Ia., hotel room—said in part:

"Sorry to run out on you like this . . . There is a good future for you if you can just forget all about this . . . Love is a fleeting

What Press Of Nation Says About Death Sentences In Atomic Bomb Cases

(By International News Service)

The decision of Federal Judge Irving Kaufman in sentencing atom bomb spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg to death was given general editorial approval today by the nation's press.

The editorials dealt mainly with the principle involved rather than the persons condemned.

Typical comment included:

The New York Times—"The imposition of the death penalty . . . must come to most with a shocking impact. Yet it would be difficult to argue that the penalty is excessive . . .

"If the death penalty comes with a shock, it is a salutary shock. The terrible egotism of the traitor is a thing of incalculable potential danger, beyond condoning or excuse."

New York World-Telegram and Sun—"It (the sentence) provides welcome assurance that the United States is beginning to look at things realistically.

"The world long has had the impression that this country is soft; that it hesitates to make the punishment really fit the crime. One reason spies have operated here with comparative impunity was their feeling that if caught they might evade punishment on some legal technicality and that if convicted they would suffer nothing worse than imprisonment.

"Now notice is being served on such people that the United States means business . . ."

Boston Post — "While public opinion may be aghast at the death sentence imposed upon the Rosenbergs, it will rally strongly in favor of stiffer penalties than have been imposed upon the long list of spies and traitors uncovered . . . in the past several years . . .

"At least it may be hoped that Judge Kaufman's stern action will have some kind of salutary effect on others who are currently engaging in conspiring with the enemy."

The Boston Herald pointed up the significance of the decision by publishing an historical dispatch. Captioned "For Spies," it read:

"Headquarters, 7 Aug. 1777 — Edmund Palmer, an officer in the enemy's service, was taken as a spy lurgink within our line. He has been tried as a spy, condemned as a spy, and shall be executed as a spy, and the flag is ordered to depart immediately. (Signed) General Israel Putnam. P.S. He has accordingly been executed."

St. Louis Globe-Democrat — "Traitors to the country should expect no compassion. Whatever the motives of the Rosenbergs, whatever their delusions as to fealty to communism, they betrayed important American secrets to another nation.

"They did so deliberately. They had not valid excuse. They are not to be pitied; they, and their like, should be punished as all traitors in wartime are punished.

"It is about time we are getting tough with this breed of criminals."

Philadelphia Inquirer — "The sentence imposed by Judge Kaufman is the sentence of justice . . . In performing their part in transmitting the secret information, the Rosenberg couple endangered the security and very existence of their own country, and the peace of the whole world . . . The warning is there for everyone to see: The Death Penalty!"

Atlanta Constitution—"There is hope that the death penalty marks the end of our soft treatment of those who are disloyal . . . We no longer can afford the foolish indulgence of being soft with traitors. Judge Kaufman is to be congratulated for making that plain. Let other traitors be warned."

Indianapolis Star — "Few defendants at the bar of American

Chinese Plan Of Resistance Proves Puzzle

Softens At One End Of Battle Line; Then Stiffens At Other

By LEE FERRERO
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 7—(Saturday)—United Nations troops hammered out yard-by-yard gains on a 35-mile front through rugged hill country above Korea's 38th Parallel Friday.

The Chinese reaction to the cautious UN advance was puzzling. Resistance softened at one end of the battleline and stiffened at the other, where American, Greek and Siamese troops continued to push toward the reservoir city of Hwachon, 10 miles north of the famous parallel.

Sudden Withdrawal

International News Service War Correspondent Don A. Schanche reported a sudden Chinese withdrawal on the western front after two days of stubborn resistance.

But farther east I.N.S. reporter Rafael Steinberg said the Chinese contested the advance of American GI's battling through steep and rugged terrain.

The Communists dug into positions in razor-backed hills just north of the prewar boundary between North and South Korea.

From their emplacements the Reds took advantage of a heavy ground fog to lob 75 and 105 millimeter artillery shells onto U. S. troops.

Elsewhere along the front units of eight Allied divisions continued to gush toward Hwachson after thrusting spearheads one to eight miles inside North Korea toward the bristling core of a 600,000-man Red army.

House In Final Debate On Draft And U.M.T. Measures

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 6—Gen. MacArthur's blunt warning that Europe would fall to Communism if he is defeated in Asia sent a deadly serious house into final debate today on the draft and universal military training.

The supreme commander in the Far East also asserted in a communication to Rep. Martin (R) Mass., that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist troops should be used to open a "second front" in Asia.

U.M.T. Defeat Claimed

The general's views were read to the House in the midst of heated debate on Universal Military Training—which one leading opponent claimed would go down to certain defeat despite a major administration effort to save it.

Chairman Barden (D) N. C., of the House Education and Labor Committee, also predicted that the House will reject proposals to draft youths under 19.

In a move to save U.M.T. from defeat, Chairman Vinson (D) Ga.,

Sen. Tobey Says He Is Ready To Give Testimony

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Sen. Tobey (R) N. H., said today that he is ready to give public testimony on his mystery case involving the Reconstruction Finance Corp. probe just as soon as the Fulbright influence subcommittee gives the word.

Tobey, who steadfastly refused to disclose any details of the case he wants to air, told newsmen:

"I am ready to go ahead at any time the subcommittee set. It is entirely up to them."

A subcommittee source said that Tobey's story would "make headlines" and that it would include "names of greater importance to the White House than any yet disclosed in the RFC hearings."

There was a possibility an open hearing on the matter would be held Monday.

Six Servicemen Killed In Crash In New Mexico

LAS Cruces, N. M., April 6—(INS)—Air Force officials attempted today to establish positive identification of six servicemen killed in an Army C-45 plane crash on Organ Peak, about 20 miles east of Las Cruces.

The plane crashed early yesterday on a routine training flight from C-A-A International Airfield near El Paso, Tex., to its homefield at Kirtland Air Force Base near Albuquerque, N. M.

A ground party resumed its grim task in the crash area early today after finding only one body intact amid the widely scattered wreckage last night. Rescuers said the bodies were so badly mangled that identification would be extremely difficult if not impossible.

Rosenbergs To Be Removed To Sing Sing Prison

NEW YORK, April 6.—(INS)—Federal prison guards said today that Ethel and Julius Rosenberg apparently slept well in their cell last night and may be removed later in the day to Sing Sing.

Irving H. Saypol, U. S. attorney who prosecuted the couple in the nation's first atomic bomb espionage trial, said their execution would take place at the Ossining, N. Y., prison. It is scheduled for the week of May 21.

Guards said the 32-year-old Rosenberg awoke first in his cell fairly early, followed by his 35-year-old wife at 6:30. They added that Mrs. Rosenberg, mother of small boys, was asked how she felt and she replied cheerfully, "I feel fine".

She still wore her own clothes, which she will exchange for prison garb at Sing Sing.

Indict Cohen For Income Tax Evasion

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, April 6—(INS)—The Justice Department announced today that gambler Mickey Cohen and his wife, Lavonne, have been indicted for alleged income tax evasion by a Los Angeles Grand Jury.

The department said the alleged taxes evaded totalled $156,123.50 and covered a period from 1946 to 1948.

Cohen, in addition, was found by the Grand Jury to have made false statements to the government on the amount of money he loaned and borrowed during the period covered by the indictment.

"VISHINSKY IN DISGRACE"

Seek To Save State Income Tax Proposal

HARRISBURG, April 6.—(INS)—Republican leaders today scheduled a top-level weekend conference to salvage Gov. John S. Fine's proposed one half of one per cent income tax.

The 119 million dollar revenue-raising measure, rebuffed in the House by a 98-108 vote Wednesday, may be brought up again next week.

Majority leader Charles C. Smith said plans will be drafted to revive the tax program when GOP leaders meet with Fine Sunday night.

Their prime task will be to whip into line the 19 Republicans who voted against the measure.

Smith reported no progress after the House's brief session ending a four-day week yesterday.

Most seats in the 208-member House were occupied yesterday in contrast to the handful present a week earlier.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

The city's downtown lighting system was receiving its spring cleaning on Thursday, Pa Newc observed. The winter's accumulation of dirt and grime was being removed from the lamp shades to afford better illumination during the night hours.

* * *

Looking at one local motorist's license plate on Thursday, Pa Newc was given a chilling thought. The plate read ICY-32. The number indicated the temperature at which water freezes. During the coming summer the owner of the plates will have at least one reminder of cooler weather, if he desires such.

* * *

Although Thursday's temperatures, during the late afternoon, rose greatly to give the local area a taste of warmer weather, the thermometer dipped during the night in the rural areas below the freezing point it is reported to Pa Newc. Farmers are glad that the warm spell is not coming suddenly in order that fruit buds will not be too far advanced yet in case later freezing weather is experienced.

Rural school youngsters about the county are now receiving their next to the last report card, with nine weeks left for the pupils to buckle down to good old hard work in order to make passing grades.

Truman's Plan For R.F.C. Killed In Committee

Senate Committee Against President's Reorganization Plan

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Senate expenditures committee voted 7 to 6 today to kill President Truman's reorganization plan for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The administration set-back came when Sen. Robertson (D) Va., joined the six Republicans on the committee in approving a resolution to reject the Truman plan.

The issue now goes before the Senate, where it is expected to come up for a vote next week.

The president's plan would place the much-criticized loan agency under a single administrator instead of the present five-man board. It has the support of Sen. Fulbright (D) Ark., chairman of the subcommittee which investigated influence in the RFC.

Sponsored by Capehart

The resolution to reject the Truman plan was sponsored by Sen. Capehart (R) Ind., a member of Fulbright's subcommittee. Unless it is backed by 49 senators in a vote to be taken before April 20,

Missing Trio Of Girls Found At Jacksonville

PITTSBURGH, April 6.—(INS)—A trip to "see the world" was ended today for three school girls of suburban Mt. Lebanon whose parents were notified the girls have been picked up in Jacksonville, Fla.

The girls, Louise and Josephine, 14 and 12, and Olive Christman, 15, disappeared from their home in fashionable Mt. Lebanon last Saturday.

The father of the Kelley girls, John M. Kelley, was following their trail through Indianapolis and St. Louis when notified they had been found.

The girls, who had continued their trip by bus after smashing the family car in Columbus, O., last Sunday, were picked up when they registered at a tourist cabin in Jacksonville yesterday.

Officers said they were near broke, and had pawned a watch and a clock in Jacksonville to obtain "a few dollars."

When they left home, the girls left a note saying they wanted to "see the world" because they were afraid there was going to be a war and they would be killed.

Wampum Post To Open Home

Legion To Dedicate Home Saturday Eve

Elaborate plans are being made by the Wampum American Legion Post for the dedication of its new home on Beaver street, which will be observed with open house on Saturday evening, commander Harold Marshall, Jr., announced today.

The program of the evening will get under way at 7:30 o'clock when the door will be opened for inspection by the public, and the speakers of the evening will include district commander R. Wayne Baird, district deputy commander Joseph Solomon and L. Butler Hennon, principal of Wampum high school.

The building, which the Legion now occupies and will be formally dedicated Saturday evening, has had a long and varied career in the history of Wampum.

Building Remodelled

It once served the citizens as a church building, and later was occupied by the Marshall Undertaking Co. as a funeral home. Later it was used by the Vance Coal Co. for an office and repair shop for its trucks, and still later was occupied as an auto repair shop.

The Legion post secured title to the structure last May, and since then the members have been remodelling it for use as a meeting hall, and have finally completed this job. All the work of remodelling was done by the members except the task of laying the floor.

The program Saturday evening will be concluded with a dance and many visitors are expected, including Legion members from various sections of the county.

Stabilization Of Wages Will Now Be Considered

Representatives Of Labor Will Serve On Mobilization Board

By FELIX COTTEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Labor spokesmen said today that the controversial wage stabilization question undoubtedly will be considered by President Truman's 17-man mobilization advisory board.

The president is expected in the next couple of days to announce the membership of the board, on which union representatives have agreed to serve.

A meeting of the group has been tentatively set for Monday. The president, it was learned, plans to be present.

Defense Mobilizer Wilson will be chairman of the board, which will have four members each from labor, industry, the public and agriculture.

Labor Representatives

Labor sources said Union representatives are almost sure to be AFL President William Green, AFL Secretary-Treasurer George Meany, CIO President Philip Murray, and Walter Reuther, president of the CIO United Auto Workers.

Union officials said that the board is expected to take up the deadlocked wage stabilization question. They added that no action toward creation of a wage set-

Make Demand That Red China Be Bombarded

By FRANK CONNIFF
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 6—Two United States congressmen demanded in Tokyo today that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's air and sea forces be authorized "very soon" to bombard and blockade Red China.

One of the congressmen, both of whom are war veterans and members of the U. S. Air Force Association, called for branding Soviet Russia as an aggressor.

Russia Already In War

Rep. O. K. Armstrong (R., Mo.), said shortly after a news conference in which he and Rep. W. J. Bryan Dorn, (D., S. C.), called for the untying of Gen. MacArthur's hands:

"Russia is already in the war. They are supplying material and there are Russians advising the Chinese and North Koreans. They are aggressors and should be so branded by the United Nations.

"They will come into the war at a time of their own choosing.

"We should take a calculated risk and put Russia on the defensive throughout all Asia. It's their war."

Cold Water On Proposals For Second Front

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The White House today threw cold water on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's proposal that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese Nationalist troops be used to open a second front in Asia.

Presidential Press Secretary Joseph Short said that there has been no change in United States policy toward the present "neutralization" for Formosa, Chiang's last strong-hold, and that none is contemplated.

Short declined to comment on reports that President Truman might like to recall MacArthur from the Asiatic command. Short said:

"I have no comment on any of those stories or any questions about them".

I realize April is lovely, and full of that bright youthful charm, I know that she showers her blessings on city and homestead and farm, and no one regards her more highly and no one asks more for her smile, but don't ditch that umbrella yet, chum, just keep it around for a while. She'll smile and then suddenly, whammy, the rain hits you full in the face, and puddles and brooklets and rivers are streaming all over the place, and an umbrella may come in handy, so don't throw that old one away, for April's a whimsical maiden, she's bright 65 today.

Over $5,000 Is Contributed In Seal Campaign

Lawrence County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., has raised more than $5,000 in its 1951 Easter seal campaign.

This was the report offered at the monthly board of directors meeting Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A. It includes both direct mail and coin boxes.

President John McGrath was in charge of the meeting. He spoke for all members when he expressed his gratitude to all who participated in the drive. The group appeared well pleased at the results of this, its first campaign.

Although many have failed to send in their contribution, it is believed that a lot of these will still be forthcoming. Perhaps this article will serve as a reminder to those who have mislaid their seals.

Plan for Work

With the campaign nearly completed, the directors started planning the best part of the crippled children's organization work, that of providing therapeutic assistance and other forms of aid to the many handicapped persons in the county.

Plans were made to see that at least five from the county attend crippled children's camps during the summer. Thomas Foley was appointed co-chairman of a committee to set up a swimming program and a handicraft program for Lawrence county's crippled. These will be started right away.

Other programs that will contribute the most good with judicious spending of the limited funds will be considered at the next meeting.

Ladies representing the various service clubs counted all campaign money at facilities provided by the Citizins National bank. They are as follows:

Mrs. Arthur Foster, Mrs. E. J. Williams, Mrs. Al Mellor, Mrs. Arthur Meek, Mrs. John McGrath, Mrs. W. L. Strawbridge, Mrs. George A. Ritter, Mrs. James C. Fink, Mrs. Sam Rashid, Mrs. Thom. Foley, Mrs. Ray J. Robinson, Mrs. Donald Copson, Mrs. Paul Reed, Mrs. John Pannella, Mrs. H. M. Fenati, Mrs. C. M. England, Mrs. John Elliott, chairman.

Vladimir Lenin, the founder of the USSR, died near Moscow January 21, 1924.

Three Butler County Officials Are Refused Permission To Testify

BUTLER, Pa., April 6.—(INS)—Three Butler county officials, subpoenaed to testify before the Butler county racket grand jury, were refused permission to appear before the panel yesterday.

Judge William B. Purvis said the three were law enforcement officers and as such they should have prosecuted any violations of the law.

The witnesses were District Attorney Clyde S. Shumaker, Assistant District Attorney George P. Kiester and County Detective Harry A. Cooper.

Special Prosecutor John L. Wilson protested that since the grand jury had been directed to investigate conditions set forth in Judge Purvis' charge, all matters touching on those conditions should go before the panel.

Some sixty-three witnesses have been summoned to appear before the grand jury.

STABILIZATION OF WAGES WILL NOW BE CONSIDERED

tlement body is anticipated until after the board meets.

The board is expected to discuss labor's major demands for changes in the mobilization program. These include more rigid restraints on prices and rents, and the manpower issue.

Meanwhile, economic stabilizer Johnston in a radio broadcast Thursday night warned both management and labor to settle their differences over wage stabilization or run the risk of having Congress do so by law.

Johnston Gives Warning

Johnston told both groups that they had been in the "doghouse" before as a result of abuse of their powers, and that it could happen again. In each case, he said, the warring groups were "socked with laws."

Johnston urged both groups to "hit the sawdust trail together." He said he was "disturbed" by the attitude they had shown, and feared that a "widening breach" was developing between them.

Unless a spirit of cooperation is shown, the economic stabilizer declared, "Our whole rearmament program could be endangered."

The united labor policy committee agreed to serve on the mobilization board at a White House conference with the President Thursday afternoon. This ended the committee's boycott of the stabilization program.

The wage stabilization board has been inactive, however, since mid-February, when the labor members walked out after the public and industry members approved the existing 10 percent wage increase ceiling.

WHAT PRESS SAYS OF DEATH SENTENCES

Justice have deserved less sympathy and leniency . . . Their transmission of atomic secrets to the Kremlin has placed millions of Americans under the threat of extinction and . . . helped Moscow to enslave and destroy countless innocent men, women and children throughout the world.

Omaha Morning World Herald—"It is a sentence which will, we believe, meet with the approval of the American people. They have been reluctant to have their courts inflict the death penalty except for the most heinous crimes and when there are no mitigating circumstances. But treason, in the atomic age, is beyond question the worst of crimes . . .

"Clearly, the law needs tightening. Courts should have the power to inflict the death penalty for espionage, sabotage, and other acts of betrayal."

Harrisburg Patriot—"He (Judge Kaufman) could see no reason for mercy or leniency in this case, one of too many coming to light of men and women who have sold out their native land at the behest of the Moscow rulers. And that is exactly the belief of the man in the street.

"It will have a salutary effect on the entire situation if the convicted husband and wife are executed without long and tedious legal delays."

Sixteen-Year-Old Soldier Receives Silver Star Medal

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 6—(INS) — Sixteen-year-old James Ward of Greensboro may be too young for the army, but not for the Silver Star Medal for gallantry in action in Korea.

The youth, who was wounded during his brief fighting career, was notified today of the award. He was discharged from the army February 3 after his age was disclosed.

Ward is credited with taking command of a squad after its leader had been killed and directing machine gun fire which halted an enemy attack. He organized a counter attack which routed the North Koreans.

The youth lives with his sister, Mrs. Theron Williams, and is working as a packer at a mail order house.

Dr. Flannery then turned the meeting over to the incoming president, Mr. Rugh, who spoke briefly. He expressed his appreciation at being so honored by the directors and asked for the cooperation of all of them in the coming year.

Reid Speaks Briefly

Eben L. Reid, executive vice president, spoke briefly and outlined what had been done since he took over his duties. He reported satisfactory results from the educational forums held and said that in the coming year the association planned to develop and expand the work in which it was engaged.

The tie in the election of directors in the professional and agricultural divisions was broken with a special election. In the professional division Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery was elected. In the agricultural division Michael Palmer of New Wilmington was elected.

Two directors will be elected by the board and three members at large will be appointed by President Rugh later.

President Rugh will also appoint the members of the 14 standing committees of the association.

A project that would tend to beautify the landscape about the county would be for farm residents to remove all the old weatherbeaten signs and other advertising matter from their properties. Many of the signs were battered out of shape during the past hard winter months and tend to mar the beauty of the farm lands. A good bonfire would be the best suggestions for the old signs.

munist supply train south of Namchonjom, leaving the locomotive and several cars aflame. It was the southermost point at which an enemy train has been spotted in recent weeks. Namchonjom is 23 miles north of the 38th parallel.

Farther behind the enemy lines, 12 American F-86 Sabrejets beat off 30 attaching Russian-type MIG-15 jet fighters in a spectacular new battle high over Korea's northwestern Sinuiju corner. At least five of the MIGS were damaged.

Far East Air Forces headquarters in Tokyo announced at least 31 and probably 36 MIGS have been shot down and 73 damaged in dogfights since the 600-mile-per-hour Communist jets entered the Korean conflict from their Manchurian "sanctuary" bases.

The FEAF announcement listed 280 Communist planes destroyed or damaged in combat and on the ground since the war began last June 25.

Most Serious Resistance

The most serious enemy resistance to the current UN drive into North Korea was encountered on the mountain-dotted central front north of Chunchon. There, the advancing Allied troops were hit by 56 rounds of what was believed to be 105 mm fire Friday, as well as intense small arms fire.

In the west sector, American tankers and infantrymen smashed forward to a depth of nearly eight miles north of the famed parallel by Thursday night.

At the same time, Allied units in the mountains center pushed more than a mile into Communist North Korea as they came to grips with fiercely fighting Chinese troops.

Elements of eight allied divisions plus two British brigades already were over the 38th parallel.

These included most of an American division and a full South Korean division smashing into North Korea on the central front.

Elsewhere, units of four other American and two South Korean divisions were driving north of the pre-war boundary.

Forward elements of an estimated 600,000 Communist troops brought increasing amounts of artillery and tanks or self-propelled guns into the fighting. In addition, an unidentified plane bombed American positions early Friday.

Robert C. Cole, an attorney representing friends of the Rutledges, refused today to surrender the letter to Houston authorities and claimed most of its contents to personal to release.

Sheriff C. V. (Buster) Kern angrily retorted that he cannot close his investigation of the suicide until an expert checks the letter and verifies the doctor's handwriting. He threatened grand jury action against Cole.

Friends said Mrs. Rutledge, who notified police to begin searching for her husband after she received the letter yesterday, was prostrated with shock.

Cherry Blossoms Festival Is Open At Washington

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—Washington's annual cherry blossom festival opens today, and for once the weather and the trees cooperated to make it the real McCoy.

The Japanese cherry trees around the tidal basin are at the height of their pink bloom for the three- day affair.

In the past few years either cold weather had delayed the blossoms and made it necessary to depend on other flowering trees for some blooms, or warm weather had them blooming so early that the department of agriculture was called on for hormone treatment to delay some of the flowers so they could blossom with the festival princesses.

The start of this project has been brought about by work and cooperation by a number of groups and individuals in the community, and the sponsors are particularly cognizant of the assistance rendered by the Mayor, City Council, the City Solicitor and the Engineer's Department of the City and the County Commissioners, it is stated.

The contract for the development has been let to the New Castle Duntile Company, and an official of the company indicated that, barring unforseen difficulties, the housing would be ready for occupancy by late fall of this year.

of the House Armed Services Committee, announced he will sponsor an amendment giving Congress complete control over the proposed National Security Training Corps.

Would Scuttle Deferment

And in still another move to weaken the opposition, Vinson said, Rep. Kilday (D) Tex., will offer an amendment to scuttle the new education deferment program proposed by Draft Director Hershey.

Sen. Knowland (R.) Calif., foremost Senate advocate of greater American activity in the Far East, said he thought the MacArthur-Martin exchange indicates clearly that the general feels the "situation in the Far East is of vital importance," and added:

"I don't read into it that Gen. MacArthur is saying that we shouldn't do anything for Europe. He is emphasizing that Asia needs our attention as well."

MacArthur's letter was written in response to a communication from Martin in which the congressman stressed the importance of opening a "second front" in Asia with Generalissimo Chaing Kai-Shek's Nationalist troops on Formosa.

JOBS FOR THE ELDERLY

Failure of the government to make real efforts to curb inflation brings recurring reminders of the plight of older persons, particularly those on pensions and with a small field income, who are being squeezed by the dwindling power of their money.

What makes their cases even more difficult is the fact that many of them are capable of being largely self-supporting, except for an unreasonable taboo in business and industry against employing them. There is no arbitrary age in the lives of most people when they suddenly become inefficient and unable to perform jobs which they have been doing all their lives. Yet it is an established practice in many firms to draw such a line, or, when any shift in business activity occurs, to discharge the older workers in favor of younger persons.

Once out of a job through no fault of their own, the elderly find it impossible to place themselves again at a living wage, and, owing to the depletion of their savings by inflation, increasingly unable to meet living costs. It is not just those in their sixties who are effected by this prejudice. Women over 35 and men of more than 40 years have trouble finding employment, even though their greater experience should make them especially employable in these times.

This is an unfortunate fact of life which both the government and employers should face with greater realism. Incentives for employment of the elderly are a proper subject for legislation and, in any case, businessmen should take steps to eliminate discrimination.

WILSON LOOKS AHEAD

Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson is a big business executive now serving the nation as a bureaucrat. One of the qualities greatly admired in business heroes is what is called vision—the ability to foresee vast developments and to help bring them to pass.

Some industrialists seem to lose this boldness of outlook as soon as they become entangled in government red tape, but not Mr. Wilson. His first quarterly report to the president is breathtaking in its estimate of what America can accomplish.

By 1953, his report says, this country will be producing more civilian goods than ever before—in addition to military equipment totaling $50,000,000,000 a year. Instead of making austere sacrifices, Americans will be living better than ever. And the nation will be so powerful, with arms vastly superior to World War II weapons, that no aggressor in his senses would take the risk of starting something.

But Mr. Wilson's reputation will hardly keep wary Americans from asking: What's the catch? There is one—or maybe there are several. The first is that if World War III breaks out, all bets are off.

Another catch is that, for millions of Americans drawn into the armed forces, there will be no happy prospect of returning to the "normalcy" of the more abundant life, plus national security. As armed forces go, the American GI revels in luxury. But men called for service, their lives considerably disrupted even if they are never called on to fight, will still be entitled to envy civilians.

The biggest catch of all is that Mr. Wilson's vision begins to falter when he looks at inflation. Inflation is the one thing that can wreck the production job, and controlling inflation is something he feels considerably less confident about.

RETIRING MR. TRUMAN

Readers of Washington's political output cannot shake a haunting suspicion that here is where they came in back in 1948. It is a dull day or column that doesn't produce expert, more or less, opinion to prove President Truman has had enough.

The 22nd Amendment, while not an outright disqualification, is cited as clear notice to Mr. Truman that the legislatures of the land do not want him to try again. On his own, it is asserted, the president is fed up. Mrs. Truman is fed up, too, and the prophets seldom hesitate to say as much for the country.

Mr. Truman wants to go back to Independence and rusticate. He wants to go back to the Senate, where the rusticating is even better than in Missouri. At 66, he's tired of Congress and criticism. Finally, presidential prestige was never lower, except maybe in 1946, or was it 1947 or 1948?

To all such predictions that Mr. Truman will not run again is appended the qualifying phrase "at this time." This is a takeout not for Mr. Truman, but for the prophets. Whether he will run or not is, the president insists, a secret known only to himself.

Those not possessing Washington's Grade A omiscience don't know whether in 1952 Mr. Truman will run for another term or the train back to Independence. But there are obstacles to a repeat performance that were not apparent three years ago.

There are still 236 problems confronting the United Nations—uranium 235 and Russia.

North Carolina's tobacco crop for 1949, it's revealed, had a value of $359,378,000. Let's hear an auctioneer say that—quick.

Broadwayites long have claimed that New York furnishes the most interesting shows of all. The Kefauver hearings in the Big Town certainly did nothing to disparage that claim.

Communists Losing In Italy

A virtual admission that the Communist party in Italy has lost a great deal of ground during the past year was seen today in Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti's call for Red representation in Premier Alcide de Gasperi's cabinet.

Togliatti, who recently returned to Rome from Moscow, made his proposal at a congress of the Italian Communist party.

Observers generally believe that Togliatti realizes that further loss of ground is inevitable unless he can restore his party's prestige in some such manner.

Received Instructions

There seems to be no question that he received instructions while in Moscow to take any steps necessary to bolster the organization. There have been numerous deflections—some by high-ranking leaders.

Conservative estimates say the communists have lost a quarter of a million members in the last 12 months. The figure may actually be far higher. There are to be municipal elections in Italy shortly and these should provide a definite clue to the situation.

Italian communism is immeasurably important to the Kremlin.

The politburo regards Pope Pius XII and the Vatican as their worst enemies. Their best weapon, of course, is Italian communism, and at one time the Italian party was the largest outside of the iron curtain.

In addition to looking for a place in the government, Togliatti has taken more active measures, including a thoroughgoing purge in the Italian Federation of Labor.

"Weakhearted Elements"

At a party meeting in Milan soon after his return from Moscow, Togliatti bitterly attacked what he termed "weakhearted" elements in the federation—meaning officials and workers who have become disillusioned over Soviet policies and are veering toward the right.

Italian communism is unique in the world.

The country, of course, is Catholic and many Italian men and women have been placed in a difficult mental position by the action of Pope Pius in excommunicating those who preach or praise communism.

It is left to the discretion of local bishops, however, to carry out the actual excommunications decrees. Apparently Italian communists have found some temporary means of reconciling innate piety with communist atheism.

Tries To Bridge Gaps

De Gasperi is trying to bridge gaps between his own program of social reforms and the extreme demands of communism.

He is trying—against much opposition from Italian aristocrats—to divide up Italy's huge feudal estates so that the land-poor peasantry can obtain at least sufficient acreage to produce what is necessary to keep body and soul together.

The land reform is difficult of fulfillment for various reasons.

The landed families still have immense wealth and power. They have strong representation in the Italian parliament and can at least slow down reforms tremendously.

In addition to this is the fact that the Italian is used to his way of life, even if it means poverty and actual hunger.

There have been a few extremist seizures of land by peasant bands. But these have not met with great popular approval. The Italian farmer has been accustomed for ages to labor for a feudal master and generally speaking there is just as much respect for a princely title as there was decades and centuries ago.

So far as Togliatti's bid for cabinet seats is concerned, De Gasperi is expected to oppose this with all his strength and will have the support of both socialists and conservatives.

The right wing and center groups believe the war almost brought new disaster on war-torn and battle-weary Italy.

Master planners in the Kremlin may have some substantial scheme for bringing about a revival of communist power. But while Italy may not be a happy and prosperous nation at present, it seems unlikely that any popular resurgence of the Red cause is possible at present.

One Man's Opinion

It isn't true that congress doesn't want Truman to send troops to Europe...They just don't want to give him the kind of power that would enable him to send congress to Europe.

The whole argument looked kind of academic...No president ever sent troops further and faster than Harry in his Korea move and he didn't get congress on the phone for that one.

But, it's amazing how many people believe the best defense of democracy is to hand all powers to one man.

Shucks...even for an Elks picnic they have a committee to buy the clams and another one to shuck them.

But, if Harry wants to run this show by himself, he sure won't be able to debit the results to anyone else if they don't come out a credit item.

Still, he can't be accused of snap judgment...He claims he already knows what he is going to do in 1952.

Now, if he knew what the voters were going to do, he would be all set.

They Say

WASHINGTON—House Speaker Rayburn: "I think we stand in the face of terrible danger and maybe the beginning of a third world war."

TOKYO: Ambassador William J. Sebald, General Douglas MacArthur's diplomatic advisor: "Without the sacrifice of lives in Korea, serving notice as it did that the free world was determined to defend itself, no one within the grasp of the aggressor would have dared go about his daily living."

NEW YORK—Egyptian Ambassador Mohamed Kamil Bey Abdul Rahim: "In the event of a world war middle eastern countries occupied by foreign troops, such as Egypt and Morocco, would fall like wooden ducks."

NEW YORK—French President Vincent Auriol: "France, who has lost more than two million of her sons, wants to strive with all her might so that peace may become a reality."

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILD WHO DAWDLES AT MEALS

Many a child is so bad because a brother or sister is so good. Many are the letters describing a child who is stubborn, gets tantrums or does all sorts of things the parents consider bad; following with the account of another child (usually younger) who is reported as practically perfect, especially in all the ways the first child is troublesome. Also many a child at school does poorly at books because a brother or sister does so well.

Even the leader of two young children may be a grave eating problem or toilet problem or sleeping problem chiefly because a younger child eats so well, cooperates so well in bathroom habits or sleeps so well.

Sits And Daydreams

Of her son, five, a mother writes: "Dear Dr. Myers: He will sit and daydream through a whole meal or else just talk and never eat between talking. Last night while we ate most of our main course he spent the time dreaming and eating one section of a cloverleaf roll. And we eat slowly as compared to most people. He will just hold food in his mouth. He doesn't care whether he eats or not. He never eats between meals or even asks for anything. I fully believe part of the trouble is because of our nagging at him to keep still and eat, saying 'Tables are for eating, not talking,' or else telling him to stop dreaming and keep eating.

"Now the baby, 16 months old, is the exact opposite of the older in eating habits and opens his mouth just like a bird when a spoon of food comes at him. We have been very definite in not ever comparing the two of them to each other."

Constant Comparison

In writing this mother I tried to help her see that even though they did not compare the children verbally, they constantly compared them in the satisfaction they revealed over the eating by the younger child, who is still being fed though he's old enough to feed himself most foods.

She, of course, knows they should quit nagging at the older boy about his eating but finds it hard to let him alone. It's always so much easier to see the reason for such problems than to remove these causes, since doing so requires so much self-discipline by both parents. Hard as the task is, it is not impossible. Perhaps one good way to begin on a long, slow but promising program is for both parents and their relatives and friends to build up the problem-child by more approvals not directly related to the troublesome problems, to have more good times with him when all is well, so as to make him feel himself a more worthy and important person and member of the family group.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

President On Defensive?

WASHINGTON, April 6.—While the evidence for it may seem somewhat scanty, there are those close to President Truman who believe that he is definitely concerned over the course of events in Washington in recent weeks. He knows that steps must be taken to correct the bad impression created by the series of disclosures coming out of the Senate investigations into crime, corruption and collusion. If any demonstration had been needed of the decline in his prestige and influence, the Senate has just given it in full and overflowing measure.

Returning from Florida, the president said he had just about decided it was time to go on another speaking tour across the country. He is reported to have thought of late April or early May as an appropriate time to tell off a laggard Congress.

Defensive Move?

But it was pointed out that such a trip coming so quickly after the headlines generated by Senators Kefauver, Fulbright & Co. would inevitably look like a defensive move. Therefore, the effect would be nullified almost at the outset. Let the people cool off a little bit first, the argument went, and this counsel seems to have prevailed. Quite apart, however, from anything that may be said in refutation or rebuttal, certain of the president's advisers are acutely aware of the things that need to be done if confidence is to be restored and the descending spiral of the president's popularity at least checked. High on the list they put the status of former Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York as ambassador to Mexico.

O'Dwyer has now flown back to Mexico City. President Aleman sent his personal plane for him, according to the news stories, as a mark of his respect and confidence.

But before too long O'Dwyer will discover that the altitude of the Mexican capital is not good for his health. He will resign as ambassador and his resignation will be accepted with an appropriate but mild expression of regret from the White House. That, at any rate, is the confident belief of those in the president's family who hold that it is no longer possible to ignore the public protest.

Friends of O'Dwyer insist that he has been very badly used—hailed before a committee that was a public spectacle in which none of the rules of legal evidence apply and subjected to wholly unfounded charges. They swear that he is innocent of taking the $10,000 campaign contribution that another witness said he gave the former mayor.

Appointment Wrong

Whatever the merits or demerits of the charges before the Kefauver committee, the appointment of O'Dwyer to be ambassador was wrong in the first instance. A capable career diplomat was removed and O'Dwyer was put in the job to get him out of the troubled political picture in New York City. Even if he had been another Talleyrand, there could hardly have been a worse reason for appointing him.

Word from Mexico City before the ambassador became a witness in the crime investigation indicated that he was showing something less than a talent for diplomacy. Ambassador and Mrs. O'Dwyer were invited to a large dinner in honor of a distinguished visitor to Mexico City. Through a secretary they first accepted and then canceled the acceptance with word that a previous commitment of long standing had been overlooked. Later the distinguished visitor was told that the O'Dwyers had dined at home alone together.

Status Of O'Dwyer

The status of another figures who made the headlines growing out of the rash of Senate investigations is also at issue in the inner discussions at the White House. That is presidential assistant Donald Dawson who was accused of bringing influence to bear in connection with loans made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Dawson has several times been publicly encouraged by the Fulbright committee to come up voluntarily and testify. At least one of the president's more thoughtful advisers strongly urged Dawson to go while he still could go voluntarily and not in response to a committee subpoena. His reply was that questions would be asked that would embarrass the president and violate the right to autonomy of the executive branch of the government. As though the president had not already been sufficiently embarrassed!

Gloom Is Unconcealed

At times the gloom is unconcealed among those willing to face up to the facts. And this applies to loyal Democrats on Capitol Hill as well as at the other end of town. Discussing the Kefauver television triumph, a Senator said:

"Why couldn't he just for once have gone to a Republican city? There's Philadelphia—a hundred years of corruption under a completely corrupt Republican machine. But no, not Estes!"

Time, as the old saw has it, heals all wounds. But the Democrats are taking no consolation from that. The time until 1952 is so very short.

THE STOUT HEART

"Okay!" said he, "I've lost today.
I'm out of strength with none to borrow.
I'm beaten now, but still I say
I'll rise again to fight tomorrow.

"To blows it can no longer bear
And, overpowered, my body loses.
My spirit through defies despair
And to be vanquished still refuses.

It must, when stronger foes assail me;

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

Here is a toast that I want to drink to a fellow I'll never know—
To the fellow who's going to take my place when it's time for me to go.
I've wondered what kind of a chap he'll be, and I've wished I could take his hand,
Just to whisper, "I wish you well, old man," in a way that he'd understand.
I'd like to give him the warm handclasp when never a friend seems near.
I've learned my knowledge by sheer hard luck, and I wish I could pass it on
To the fellow who'll come to take my place, some day when I am gone.
Will he see all the sad mistakes I've made and note all the battles lost?
Will he ever guess of the tears they caused, or the heartaches which they cost?
Will he gaze through the failures and fruitless toil to the underlying plan,
And catch a glimpse of the real intent and the heart of the vanquished man?
I dare to hope he may pause some day as he toils as I have wrought
And gain some strength for his weary task from the battles which I have fought.
But I've only the task itself to leave with the cares for him to face.
And never a cheering word may speak to the fellow who'll take my place.
Then here's to your health, old chap, I drink as a bridegroom to his bride;
I leave an unfinished work to you, but God knows how I tried.
I've dreamed my dreams, as all men do, but never a one came true,
And my prayer today is that all the dreams may be realized by you.
And we'll meet some day in the great unknown—out in the realm of space;
You'll know my clasp as I take your hand and gaze into your face.
Then all our failures will be success in the light of the new-found dawn—
So I'm drinking your health, old chap, who'll take my place when I am gone.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER

CLERGY

Doctors and clergymen work together pretty well. They need each other and the health department needs both of them.

Some doctors say that all of our troubles are due to disease or deformity of the body or mind.

The clergymen say that some of these troubles are caused by sin. They probably have something there too.

The health department tries to prevent troubles due to infection and disease. The clergymen try to prevent troubles due to sin.

If they work together, things ought to go along pretty well.

Grandad says that a sick man is not as likely to sin, but you know Granddad.

The Nimitz Commission—2

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Chairman
President's Commission on Internal Security and individual Rights
1405 G. Street, NW
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

It seems unlikely that this letter will reach you at your Comsion's office, for neither you nor your eight fellow-commissioners have been there often enough to do a stroke of work. Your Commission, to be quite frank about it, has now enjoyed a three-month siesta, for which the taxpayer is picking up the check in office rent and administrative salaries. It's about time you gave an account of your stewardship.

Only Visible Activity

Since you may not know what's going on, Mr. Chairman, I report that the only visible activity of your Commission has been on the part of two members who are lobbying in the Senate judiciary committee for special favors. The Hons. John A. Danaher and William E. Leahy, both with offices in Washington, are representing the rest of the commissioners in re a bill (H.R. 2829) which would exempt them and their employees from the conflict-of-interest laws. These are statutes which prohibit persons who take Federal pay from cashing in on their Federal connections for a period of two years. Your Commission, which was appointed to secure "individual rights," is now trying to secure individual privileges for itself. They are asking that laws which apply to the rest of the American citizenry be suspended for the benefit of Nimitz, Danaher, Leahy, Anna Lord Strauss, Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., Charles H. Silver, Russell C. Leffingwell, the Rt. Rev. Karl M. Block, the Most Rev. Emmet M. Walsh and their helpers. The lawyers of this group would benefit in hard cash if the bill were passed, while others would benefit in various ways, all of them indirectly financial.

Some Arguments For Exemption

There are, of course, some arguments in favor of this special exemption, but let's face it, Admiral. These are days when the nation is pretty disillusioned about the sincerity and unselfishness of its display of respectable names should add to the country's sense of disappointment. Favoritism—which is exactly what your commissioners are seeking—calls up recent memories of mink coats and shady deals. Selfishness—which is exactly what your commissioners are practicing—is exemplified by the Labor leaders who have walked out on the mobilization program and by the farm bloc leaders who are pushing their selfish interests against the effort to stem inflation. And now along comes your Commission with a sit-down strike of sorts, trying to wheedle favors out of their country's government which, heaven knows, all good Americans should be proud to serve under the law.

Little Chance For Bill

For your information, Admiral, the bill has little chance of coming out of the judiciary committee or of passing the Senate. McCarthyism is the hidden issue, and it's a hot one. The Administration seems willing to accept the conflict-of-interest suspension, but only because this makes it easier to get hack-lawyers on the payroll. The Republicans are against the bill, mainly because they're afraid that hack-lawyers will turn your commission into another white-wash agency. The Dixiecrats are going along with the Republicans. If your distinguished commissioners think they will get their special exemption by a sit-down strike, they are probably mistaken. Anyhow, you owe it to the country to find out whether these eight persons are willing to get on with the job or not. If not, let's get eight other qualified persons with a higher sense of patriotic duty.

Has Not Been Done

Your Commission, Admiral, was set up for the laudable purpose of taking Commie-hunting out of politics. This has not been done. It has not been done because you, who were supposed to take command of the mission, have not taken command. You have been in the cabin when you should be up on deck. By your inaction you are condoning this combination of siesta and sit-down strike. It's the first time this country ever heard of Admiral Nimitz letting the crew decide on what terms they'll pull up the anchor and take the ship out to sea.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

We men are often being accused by our wives of not taking sufficient interest in the most important matters of fashion, home decoration and cuisine.

Many wives claim that their husbands never notice it when they wear a stunning new dress or hat. On the other hand, men immediately complain when their wives look the least bit unattractive.

Men also seem to be entirely unaware of a new lamp, a different arrangement of the furniture, a much-labored-over flower arrangement.

As far as meals are concerned, wives are in complete accord about the indifference of husbands when there is a delectably special dish on the table, but scream like stabbed pigs when there is the slightest shortcoming in their dinner.

I think the wives have a point. We do take them too much for granted. We are too concerned with making the money for what they buy. But we do not show any interest in the things they DO buy, except an occasional remark such as "No Wonder you never have enough money. Do you think I am a gold mine or something?"

I consider it my duty to tell you fellow men something about these fashion and home affairs, so that you can at least simulate interest and occasionally talk about them with your wives.

Consequently I have read the New York women's pages very diligently the past few days and made copious notes.

Unfortunately, however, I am not an expert. So, what in my notes appears as something about a new dress or hat, may really be a cooking recipe, or vice versa.

You will have to excuse any mistakes, although it really makes little difference.

Here is the first item that has me puzzled.

The note says "Anguille Mode de Chef Angleterre" and right after that "Balanciaga's original cardigan coat in oatmeal-colored chinchilla."

I remember from the days I studied French that "anguille" is "eel," and I am almost sure that women are not wearing any eels on their heads as yet.

By the same token, however, what does "oatmeal" do on a coat?

Could it be that the chinchilla ate oatmeal for breakfast and got it over its fur?

It must be that sort of stuff that gets men all mixed up. Don't you think so?

Here is another note:

"The fashion show at the Ritz was prefaced by some organdie party aprons designed and sewn by Mrs. Eddie Rickenbacker. They are bits of sheer delight with bandings of embroidered French ribbon."

Personally I don't know what aprons are doing at parties. I must ask Eddie Rickenbacker, whom I know, to ask his wife about it.

But again you can see why we husbands get mixed up.

Here is a note, however, which is entirely clear.

"Among the popular new wall paper is one which shows gold polka dots on black."

I can also tell you confidentially that "tube coats of Abyssinian monkey fur" are very stylish this season.

I hope I have helped you.

See Buildup Of Air Strength In Manchuria

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The Air Force said today that "there is evidence of a substantial Communist buildup of air strength in Manchuria" along the Korean border.

Army intelligence, meanwhile, confirmed that the Chinese have moved about 100,000 fresh troops from Manchuria into northern Korea.

The Air Force spokesman replied with a flat "no, sir" when asked if the Communist air buildup was as extensive as the 3,000 jet planes the Russians were reported by London sources to have given the Chinese.

The spokesman refused to estimate the number of enemy planes, declaring that the "figures are too secret."

The Air Force previously estimated that the Chinese had about 300 Russian-made jets. Reporters at a briefing received no reply when they suggested this figure may have increased to from 600 to 800 jets.

Military spokesmen refused to comment on the report that MacArthur has been given authority to bomb Manchurian bases if the Communists launch big air attacks, and refused to make any statement on the possibility of using Chinese Nationalist troops.

Four-Ton Boulder Blocks Harlansburg Road Temporarily

They do things in a big way out at Harlansburg, it seems.

Last fall the small town made history when several lads became lost in the widely known caverns in that section, and now as an aftermath of that excitement, a large boulder weighing near four tons moves onto the highway near where the entrance of the caves are found.

Highway crews were hastily called to the area late Wednesday evening when the report was received that the large boulder had rolled down onto highway route 108.

Fortunately when the rock decided to make its way onto the highway, no cars were using the road at that point or perhaps serious injury or greater consequences would have resulted. The workmen roped off the area and placed flares as they went about about their long job of splitting up the large rock and moving it to the side of the road.

Several other rocks of a similar size were found hanging precariously, and to prevent a similar occurrence these were roped and brought down and disposed of. The scene of the activity is just between the two entrances to the old caves which lie on either side of the new highway which moves through Harlansburg.

The task, highway workmen report is just one of the many duties they are called to perform in order to keep the state highway system safe for travel throughout the county.

REDUCTION IN CLAIMS

HARRISBURG, April 6.—(INS)—A six per cent reduction in new claims in unemployment benefits in Pennsylvania during the week ended March 30 was reported today by the state unemployment compensation bureau.

Newly-idled workers submitted about 16,800 claims, according to the agency, with most coming from coal mining, food processing, textile and tobacco manufacturing industries.

The 67,900 claims held over from the previous week reflected a five per cent decrease, the bureau said.

Another Week Of Suspense For Trio Of Convicted Slayers

BELLEFONTE, Pa., April 6.—(INS)—Another week of agonizing suspense stretched ahead today for three condemned Philadelphia slayers following their eighth last-minute reprieve from Pennsylvania's electric chair.

David Darcy, 26; Harry Zietz, 21, and Harold Foster, 26, resumed their brooding wait in the execution building at Rockview penitentiary, where they were to have died at 12:30 a. m. today.

All three were convicted for the fatal shooting of William Kelly, 38, as they fled from a holdup of the Feasterville Inn in Bucks county on Dec. 22, 1947.

Desperate appeals of Darcy's attorneys who claim he did not receive a fair trial had cancelled previous electrocution dates set for last Monday and again on Tuesday.

The week's third reprieve came yesterday when Darcy's execution was stayed by the U. S. district court at Scranton, which recessed a habeas corpus hearing until 10 a. m. next Tuesday.

Gov. John S. Fine at Harrisburg later postponed the deaths of Zietz and Foster, explaining: "I am of the opinion that they should not be executed while the Darcy case is pending."

Fine set execution of the trio for the week beginning next Monday, but specified that they should not go to the chair before next Thursday morning.

CLOTHES FOR SECOND MARRIAGE

"I am a divorcee and am about to be married for the second time. Will you please tell me what would be proper to wear at a home wedding and what to wear if I decide to be married by a Justice of the Peace."

Answer: Street-length clothes and a hat, preferably at both types of wedding. If you marry at home, you may wear a long after-noon dress and change to something more appropriate in which to travel.

Question: Is it necessary for a man to tip hat to a strange woman who stops him to ask directions on the street?

Answer: Yes, he should lift his hat when she speaks to him and again when she leaves him. He should always raise his hat when spoken to by a woman or when a companion (man or woman) speaks to or is spoken to by a woman. He should also tip his hat in the following situations: In passing any woman he knows—whether a close relative or a casual or business acquaintance. In joining or leaving any woman of his acquaintance, in a public place. When he performs any act of courtesy for a woman, even a stranger, such as stepping aside to let her pass, opening a door for her, picking up something she dropped or giving her a seat in a public vehicle. When a man accompanies a woman, he should likewise tip his hat, in acknowledgment of any courtesy paid to her.

Question: When I invite guests for a week end, must I specify any special time for their arrival and departure?

Answer: Your invitation should state "from Friday dinner until Monday morning when Bill will drive you to town" or "Saturday dinner until Sunday evening" depending upon the circumstances.

About 40 per cent of the land area of the United States has too little rain for safe general farming.

Babson Discusses Problem Of Self-Protection In U.S.

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1951, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—For some time I have been advising my readers who live in large cities to have—as insurance—a small house with enough land to feed one's family and far enough away from the large city to be safe in case of World War III. I am not recommending farming as a small business, as it is fast becoming a "big business" operation. It is very difficult for an inexperienced person, without much capital, to compete with big farmers. As insurance, however, I believe such a small place in the country is the cheapest, safest and most sensible insurance a family can buy, after being insured against fire.

Roger W. Babson

Being Smug Will Not Pay

I am now getting letters from readers saying: "We already have a house to which we can flee in an emergency. Hence, we are okay whatever happens." This week I wish to remind such readers that they have forgotten the "refugee problem". It is very possible that when you reach your "hide-away", you will find it already occupied by others who have fled from a large city and—by permission of the Red Cross or some state official—have already taken possession. The rule may be that the first refugees who reach an unoccupied house—or an occupied house with empty rooms—can take possession, whoever the owner may be.

Hence, it is important that we (who think we are well provided with a safe refuge) should wake up and do something now, to prepare for an abrupt surprise! This applies not only to those who are planning to flee to a summer place in the country, but also to those who now live smugly in the quiet suburbs of some city which may be bombed. Such houses will be occupied by starngers if we leave them vacant—while we must share them with strangers if we remain in them. In case of enemy bombing, refugees will be given any empty beds whenever needed.

"What shall we home owners do?" you ask. Let me reply that our future safety depends upon getting interested now in helping the other fellow. If a city within 75 miles is bombed, only those who are truly unselfishly interested in helping the refugees will save their own homes, whether in a city suburb or in a little farm or village. This means we should now become an active Red Cross or refugee worker. We should now study first-aid nursing and emergency diet. We should now definitely plan to take strange people into our homes either in entirety or in part, in case of need. If we have a barn or garage or empty building, we should now fix it up for refugees. Our personal safety will then depend not upon how much money we have, but how much we are doing for other people who have lost eveyrthing. Only our generosity will save us. Smugness and the feeling that we will get preferential treatment because of our houses, our money, our social standing or our political pull could land us in a concentration camp.

Cease Being An "Anti"

It is very important that we at once quit being an "anti" and now train ourselves and our children to care and share with others. It seems as if everyone with whom I talk is "anti-something". Some families are anti-Jewish, others anti-Negroes, others anti-Catholics and other anti-Protestants, or "anti-labor or anti-capital! Then, I find one family is anti-Truman and the family next door is anti-Taft, or anti-something else. Some are for World Federation, in which I believe, and others laugh at me. To save our own necks we must forget this "anti-stuff" and remember Jesus' profound statement: "If we are to save our lives we must be willing to lose our lives."

All of us are more or less "anti" on our foreign policy—whether to follow Hoover or Dewey or Acheson. I especially wish the United Nations could quit its childish debating about "who cast the first stone". It should unite on some constructive policy of providing all countries with their just peace needs of oil, food and other necessary raw materials. This is the only way War III can be prevented. Our hope and safety lies not with more bombers, more ships and more ground troops, but in assuring the world of the four freedoms which we offered them nearly ten years ago. But, in the meantime, let all of us plan something for the refugees in case some city near us is bombed.

NOTHING IN NAMES

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C.—The sergeant had to look twice at his roster at the Marine Corps recruit depot here when he saw the names of Grover Cleveland and Howard Taft. The two young men, Pvt. Cleveland of Maywood, N. J., and Pvt. Taft of Alfred Station, N. Y., are not related to the former presidents.

TALENT MADE USEFUL

Some 20,357 Bridges In State Highway System

HARRISBURG, April 6—Statistically, for each two miles of travel, a motorist crosses one bridge, as latest State Department of Highway tabulation reveals the 41,000-mile system contains 20,357 spans of various types.

And this large number is exclusive of the many spans less than eight feet in length that cross Pennsylvania's smaller streams.

District 8 of the State Highway Department which includes the counties of Adams, Cumberland, Franklin, York, Dauphin, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, and Perry contains the largest number of bridges, leading all districts with 3,016. They range from the Susquehanna River bridges to the old covered wooden structures that span the Conodoguinet, Yellow Breeches and Shermans Creek.

Second largest number is found in District 4 which comprises Bradford, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Pike, Susquehanna, Wayne, and Wyoming counties, with 2,190 bridges.

A close third is District 3 with 2,066 bridges in Columbia, Lycoming, Montour, Northumberland, Snyder, Sullivan, Tioga, and Union counties.

District 12 has 2,030 bridges in the counties of Fayette, Greene, Somerset, and Washington.

Other districts are:

District 1 with 1,920 bridges in the counties of Crawford, Erie, Forest, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and Lawrence.

District 5 with 1,686 in the counties of Berks, Carbon, Lehigh, Monroe, Northampton, and Schuylkill.

District 6 with 1,566 in the counties of Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia.

District 10 with 1,551 in the counties of Armstrong, Butler, Clarion, Indiana, and Jefferson.

District 9 with 1,538 in the counties of Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Fulton, Huntingdon, and Mifflin.

District 11 with 1515 in the counties of Allegheny, Beaver and Westmoreland.

District 2 with 1279 in the counties of Centre, Clearfield, Clinton, Elk-Cameron, McKean, and Potter.

Work On Bridge Now Progressing

Construction work on the Grove street bridge over Neshannock creek, is moving along, with the return of good weather.

Welders are putting in the tie plates between the girders, and the forms for the concrete work on the west end of the bridge are being constructed.

The work which remains on the structure should be completed within a short period of time now, it is indicated.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A couple of businessmen had had an unusually successful season and the senior partner flew down to Miami Beach for a well-earned vacation. He had been there two days when his partner in New York called him long distance to sputter, "Our safe has been robbed! $50,000 is missing!"

The senior partner calmly replied, "Now, Joe, that's going entirely too far. You put $45,000 right back in the safe."

This is probably the oldest story about Texas and is reprinted here in the hope that contributors won't send it in quite so often in the future.

A farmer visited his banker 50 miles from home and sought to put a mortgage on his acreage. The banker allowed as how he'd have to drive out and look over the farm first. As they conversed, the wind was rising steadily. The farmer finally looked out of the window and said, "You needn't trouble to drive out and look at my farm. Here she comes now!"

Scores on Snores

HER HEALTH and social life were imperiled by a husband whose supersnores "rattled the dishes," Mrs. Richard Michalak (above) charged in a Chicago court in seeking separate maintenance from her mate. When he fell asleep watching television programs, his snoring kept others from hearing the program, she added. She was given custody of their daughter and $20-a-week temporary support. Communists Seize American Mission

HONG KONG, April 6.—(INS)—Communist seizure of the American Maryknoll mission orphanage at Loting, in China's Kwangtung province, and the arrest of two priests and three nuns were reported today by Catholic sources in Hong Kong.

The priest in charge, Father Robert Kennelly, and his assistant, Father John Grazer, were said to have been imprisoned along with the nuns.

A Belgian Catholic priest expelled from China said meanwhile that the Communists at Henyang, in Hunan province, daily are shooting political enemies. He believed that as many as 200 were executed recently at Henyang.

Rotation Plan Goes Into Effect In Mid-April

By DARRELL GARWOOD
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 6—Army Secretary Pace said Thursday that a rotation plan for men on the fighting front in Korea will go into effect about mid-April and the Army's chief of staff urged an extra $50 a month for troops on combat duty.

Pace, in a formal statement, said the rotation program will be expanded until it reaches a peak of 20,000 men a month, possibly by June. He stated that the first small contingent of combat veterans is expected to sail for home about April 15.

Extra Pay Asked

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, the Army's staff chief, testified before the Senate Armed Services Committee on a bill which would provide an extra $100 a month for officers and a $50 bonus for enlisted men who are on combat duty at least six days out of a month.

Collins said the additional pay would help to dispel a feeling among the troops that they are "forgotten men."

He added: "One of their greatest preoccupations is the thought that the people back home do not realize and do not care what they are undertaking. The passage of this bill would show them that we do know that they are making sacrifices."

The Army follows the Marine Corps in setting up a system for relieving troops who have been in combat. Several thousand Marines already have been brought back to the U. S.

British Troops May Be Withdrawn From Suez Canal

LONDON, April 6. — (INS) — Britain was reported today to have approved "in principle" a plan for withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal zone to fulfill a long-sought demand by Egypt.

The diplomatic writer of the London Daily Telegraph said the cabinet had given its approval on condition that Egypt agree to readmit British troops in event that war becomes imminent.

Britain's ambassador to Egypt, Sir Ralph Stevenson, is returning to Cairo Saturday to convey the proposal to the Egyptian government.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, April 6.—(INS)—If you talk about styles in belts—the belts are bound to be 'crushed.'

That's the biggest new fashion in waist-clinchers this year: wide belts crushed and pinched into squat buckles. These can be leather or fabric, straw or plastic; just so they give the casual, accordion look.

In narrower-type belts, for summer's city cotton dresses, the big favorite is patent leather belts. Preferably in colors that blend softly with the shade of the dress.

Black patent belts, wide or narrow, are considered good style with almost any dress, from a bouffant white organdie to a simple silk sheath.

Running third in the competition for waistline glamour are straw girdles—sometimes striped in several colors, often studded with glass beads or rhinestones.

Increase Shown For Employment In Manufacturing

NEW YORK, April 6.—(INS)—Employment in manufacturing showed a moderate increase from January to February in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reports.

For the three states combined, February's total of 4,239,300 factory jobs represented a rise of 1.2 percent over the January total and was 11.3 percent higher than the same month in 1950.

Fugitive Msgr. Varga Claims Russia Is 'Getting Desperate'

NEW YORK, April 6—(INS)—Msgr. Bela Varga, president of the Hungarian government in exile, said in New York Thursday that a reported cominform order to "liquidate" him means that Russia is "getting desperate and is going to do something."

Bela Varga, who escaped from Hungary during the Communist coup in 1947, told a news conference:

"This is the first time that Moscow has had the gall to order the liquidation of an exile living in the United States. It means that anti-Communist sentiment in Hungary is getting so strong that the cominform is preparing to go to extremes to crush opposition."

Mt. Jackson U.P. To Observe College Day

National Christian College Day will be observed on Sunday, April 8, at Mt. Jackson U. P. church. Professor Harry Reith of the faculty at Westminster college will speak at the 11 a. m. worship service. Miss Lois Brodbeck, Ellwood City, who is a senior at Westminster, will be the soloist.

Representatives of Westminster college, including members of the faculty and student body, will participate in services at 220 churches on Sunday.

Th' unit will be guests of Post 343 at a joint meeting, Tuesday evening, April 10, and a large attendance is expected.

Proposes Ceiling On Relief Payments

HARRISBURG, April 6.—(INS)—Senate Republican whip Fred P. Hare today put the finishing touches to legislation proposing a ceiling of $125 monthly on relief payments for married couples regardless of the number of dependents.

A $50 limit for single relief recipients will be proposed, according to the Somerset lawmaker.

He estimates adoption of his proposal will save the Commonwealth as much as 50 million dollars a biennium.

Dependency now gauges relief allotments for married couples and benefits can run up to $300 a month, Hare reported.

French Police To Question American About Gold Bullion

DIJON, France, April 6.—(INS)—French police sought today to question an American about $100,000 in gold bullion discovered in his automobile which collided with two trucks at Dijon and was wrecked.

Karl Schwarz, Austrian-born American who was identified as a New York textile industrialist, was in too great a state of shock to be interrogated after the accident yesterday.

Authorities said that they found about 140 pounds of gold in Schwarz' badly damaged car. The gold was alleged to have been secreted under the rear seat.

Schwarz was taken to a hospital in Dijon suffering from a broken shoulder. His general condition was not considered serious although his nerves were shattered by the crash at a Dijon crossroad.

Says Victory In Malaya To Require Years

NEW YORK, April 6.—(INS)—Brigadier Ian Wight of the British general staff in Malaya, said today that victory in the unheralded fighting against the communists in Malaya will take years, but it is vital to win to keep the reds from sweeping the area from China to India. He called Singapore "one of the world's most important highways."

Brigadier Wight, who is in America for a lecture tour, was until his recent return from Malaya responsible for planning British operations in the far eastern theater. The 45-year-old soldier also handled all plans for dispatch of the British 27th brigade to Korea.

Two-Pronged Weapon

As a two-pronged major weapon against communism the British have 17,000 soldiers in Malaya to battle the red bands and have established a vast system of population rehabilitation. The plan ultimately will encompass 300,000 "squatters" who have lived in squalid conditions and have been a fertile field for communist propaganda. Thus far, under the rehabilitation plan, 160,000 persons have been resettled in new village areas and given materials for home building, electricity, health services and land for crops.

Wight predicted that the battle against the communists will be won "but it will take years". He told a graphic story of the British jungle fights, on the ground and from the again, aaginst communists who sweep out of the dense foliage and carry out assaults against the European rubber planters and the tin miners. He said the British planes use bombs, rockets and cannon against the groups he called "bandits".

"In Malaya," he said, "there are about 5,000 of these bandits who use highly organized communist tactics. While 90 per cent of them are of Chinese origin there is not much infiltration into the 500-mile peninsula—just a slight bit from Siam."

Fathers-Sons Are Guests At YMCA Banquet

Approximately 150 fathers and sons were guests last night of the leaders council of the YMCA, at a banquet in the George Washington Junior high school.

Rev. J. Calvin Rose, program guest speaker talked briefly on three points which included:

1. It's not who you are but what you are.
2. It's not what you have but how you use it.
3. Learning to work and live with others to bring about happy adjustments.

Special guests included Dr. W. F. Jackson, representing the school board, Dr. Frank Burton, superintendent of public schools, and Dr. James Gillespie, chairman of the board of management of the Shenango YMCA.

Robert L. Meermans, general secretary of the YMCA, and John P. Boyle, president of the Y, proclaimed the evening successful, and congratulated the leader's council for initiating the program. Both expressed the hope that the fathers and sons will meet annually at a YMCA banquet.

Guitar and accordion solos were played by Clinton Ward, and Joe Koscinski, and Philip Marende presented the reading "Democracy In Action".

Radio Station On Ship To Be Aid To Voice Of America

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The United States soon will launch a sea-going radio station to aid the Voice of America in its "campaign of truth" against Communist distortions.

An informed source told International News Service today that the first mobile station, mounted on a fast freighter, is expected to be in operation within three months.

This first vessel in "operation vagabond" is expected to become the nucleus of a fleet of five which will mount powerful medium-wave radio stations to carry the words of the Voice of America to freedom loving people under the Soviet shadow.

The project was developed by the State Department, the spokesman said. It has been approved by President Truman, the joint chiefs of staff and the National Security Council.

Report Explosions Along Border Of Israel And Syria

TEL AVIV, April 6.—(INS)—Reports from Tiberias, in northern Palestine, said a series of heavy explosions were heard today along the border separating Israel and Syria.

The cause of the explosions was not determined immediately.

Late yesterday planes of the Israeli air force bombed fortified positions of the Syrian army along the frontier. The bombing was in retaliation for Syrian attacks on Wednesday in which Syrian troops allegedly shot and killed seven Israeli policemen and wounded three others.

The outbursts of firing followed a heightening of tension along the frontier of the two countries where a United Nations committee is seeking a settlement of differences between Israel and Syria under an armistice.

G.N.C.A. Forums End Tuesday

The educational forums of the Greater New Castle Association which have been under way since March 28 will close Tuesday night, April 10.

Originally they were scheduled to close tonight with a special night meeting but the interest in them has been such that Executive Vice President Eben L. Reid added a Monday morning session at ten o'clock and a Tuesday night session at seven thirty.

A night session will be held tonight in the Castleton hotel at 7:30. The night sessions are for the convenience of those members who have been unable to attend the day sessions.

During the progress of the sessions between 175 and 200 members have attended. In the sessions Executive Vice President Eben L. Reid has outlined the plans and policies of the association and asked the members their preference in committee membership.

Later, President James A. Rugh will appoint the membrship of the following committees. Finance, Publicity and Advertising, Agriculture, Highways and Transportation, Legislative Affairs, Civic Improvement, Traffic Safety and Fire Prevention, New Industries, Home Industries, Membership, Retail trade promotion, Wholesale trade promotion, Education, and Military Affairs.

College Students Not To Avoid Service In Armed Forces

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The manpower policy committee declared today President Truman's plan for deferment of college students with high scholastic standings will not permit them to avoid service in the armed forces.

The committee, headed by Dr. Arthur Flemming, emphasized in a statement that "under the program no man is exempted from the obligation to serve."

The group explained the new plan will mean "that more students will be available for induction during the coming academic year than has been the case during the present year."

The committee added:

"It is true under the proposed program some college students will be able to complete their basic education. When they have completed it they will be available, however, to local selective service boards for prompt induction into the armed services."

W.C.T.U. Plans Quintet Workshop

Yearly quintet workshop of the W.C.T.U.'s of Washington, Allegheny, Butler, Beaver and Lawrence counties has been planned for Friday, April 13. Morning and afternoon sessions will be conducted in the W.C.T.U. Home, 249 West Pike street, Canonsburg, on the Pittsburgh, Washington car line. The morning program will begin at 10 o'clock, and the afternoon meeting will start at 1:30 o'clock. There will be a box luncheon at noon.

Mrs. Scott Kirk, Lawrence county, will discuss "Scientific Temperance Illustration and Religious Education Department" as part of the morning session. Mrs. Ella B. Black, past president of Pennsylvania W.C.T.U., will present the state officers, branch secretaries and directors.

Miss Sestie Gibson, Butler county, will offer prayer during the afternoon program, while Mrs. James McBurney, Washington county, will conduct the pearl medal speech contest. The state president's plans for the year 1951-52 will be discussed. Mrs. A. L. Leonard, state president, will also offer prayer. A new W.C.T.U. song, written by G. K. Soffel to the tune of "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning," will be used for group singing.

LOS ANGELES—A North American F-86 D, jet plane fires a salvo of 2.75 inch rockets as it successfully completes firing tests. One of the most heavily armed fighters, the all-weather jet interceptor carries 24 rockets, enough striking power to knock out any size missle or aircraft flying today.

Urge Increase In Production Of U.S. Timber

WASHHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The U. S. forest service is urging congress to spend 100 million dollars in the next five years to increase national forest timber production by 50 percent.

The International News Service was told the proposed program calls for construction of additional logging roads totaling 4,555 miles.

The forest service says that current rate of cut in national forests is four billion board feet a year. The additional hinterland roads would increase the output another two billion board feet to six billions a year.

The service believes that an increase in timber production is imperative under present defense requirements. Should a full-blown global war explode, the service says demand for wood would skyrocket.

Two billion board feet of timber has little meaning unless you know that such a quantity would build 200,000 five-room frame houses. It would house all the people living in a city the size of Denver, Colo.

The proposed program shows that the 100 million dollars the government would pay out for construction of new roads over a five-year period would be completely paid back to the U. S. Treasury another five years after they are completed.

And from then on, according to the program, the treasury would make about 20 million dollars profit a year on the additional backwoods area tapped, based on current stumpage rates.

And since the national treasury would receive 20 million dollars from selling timber each year, the federal government would pay five million dollars back to the states sharing in the expansion.

The program would cut 286 miles of logging roads in Colorado National Forests at an estimated cost of four and a half million dollars. This investment would boost Colorado's national forest timber output from 173 million board feet to 250 million.

In another example, the Forest Service says that four-and-a-half mile road costing $152,600, built on the Tahoe National Forest of California in 1943-44, carrier timber sold for $218,000 on the stump three years later.

Croton W.S.C.S. Elects Officers

Croton W.S.C.S. met in the church and enjoyed a tureen dinner planned by the Joy Circle. Group singing was led by Betty Jane Nelson with Mrs. Campbell at the piano.

Mrs. Hinkson offered prayer and a business session followed. Election of officers for the ensuing year took place, with the following being elected: president, Mrs. T. E. McCreary; vice-president, Mrs. John Wilson; recording secretary, Mrs. Phillip Benninghoff; promotion secretary, Mrs. George Emerick; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Emerick; local church, Miss Dorothy Henry; status of women, Mrs. D. J. Davies; spiritual life, Miss Goldie Blaine; literature and publications, Mrs. Ralph Jordan; student work, Mrs. Harley Crowe; youth work, Mrs. H. M. McQuiston; children's work, Mrs. Elmer Grossman; supply secretary, Mrs. E. A. Anderson; membership secretary, Mrs. Isiah Creel; missionary education, Mrs. Ward Sizer.

Mrs. Chester Dean gave a very fine book review on "The White Witch Doctor." The next meeting will be held in the church on May 29.

Russia Faced With Problem On Jap Treaty

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—(INS)—Russia is confronted today with the alternative of signing the proposed Japanese peace treaty or risking loss of her claim to the strategic Kuriles and South Sakhalin, which were awarded to the Soviets at Yalta.

This was disclosed through scrutiny of the treaty text which was prepared by the United States and is being circulated among the interested nations, including Russia.

The treaty draft recognizes the Yalta award of the Kuriles and South Sakhalin to the Soviet Union but states no Japanese "right, title or interest shall be deemed to be diminished or prejudiced by any provision hereof in favor of a state which does not sign" the peace pact.

Ambassador John Foster Dulles declared validation of Russia's territorial claims is dependent upon her becoming a signatory to the treaty.

Starts Drive On Some Of Hidden Price Increases

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—(INS)—Regional Price Stabilizer Victor E. Moore launched a campaign today against hidden price increases which he said result by lowering the quantity of merchandise but keeping the original price.

Moore asked State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst and Chief Philadelphia Magistrate James J. Clothier for names of food dealers convicted of adulterating products.

He also instructed his Pittsburgh, Erie and Wilmington, Del., offices for similar information.

Moore declared:

"Within the past few weeks several operators of small baking companies have been convicted . . . of adulterating their products. Specifically, they were found to have added certain preparations for the purpose of misleading the public into the belief that the rich color thus obtained was due to use of eggs and butter.

"In my opinion, this practice is particularly reprehensible and in a time when inflation can threaten our entire defense effort, it should not be tolerated".

Baby Is Burned With Hot Water

Baby Joyce Thompson, aged one year, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Thompson of R. D. 9, was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital for treatment of second degree burns late Thursday morning.

The baby suffered burns of the face, arms, right hand and chest when she pulled a pan of hot water onto herself. Her condition was reported as fair at the hospital today.

Warn Congress Of War Danger

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The administration has warned congress the United States faces "its greatest danger" of war during 1951.

This was disclosed today by the house appropriations committee after receiving closed door testimony from high government officials, much of it off the record.

The house group stated:

"The committee received testimony from leaders in the government which emphasized the point that the nation faces its greatest danger from enemy action during the present calendar year."

The committee said if vast sums were appropriated for civil defense "they would be of no practical value since with the current planning of the civil defense administration they could not be effectively expended in time to meet the present emergency."

In view of the danger of an attack this year, the committee therefore urged that the "best approach" to the civil defense problem is to provide the states and municipalities with "a trained corps" of civil defense personnel.

It added this personnel should be qualified "to activate and administer a sound civil defense program when it is formulated by the federal government."

To that end, the committee added, the federal government should establish training schools to train local leaders as well as spread information and guidance to the states for the education of the general public.

Seven Arrested As Dope Ring Members

HAMBURG, April 6.—(INS)—Seven persons accused as members of an international dope ring having links with crime syndicates in the United States were under arrest today in Germany.

German police said the seven included persons of Italian, Spanish, Chinese and German nationality.

The group, reportedly associated with the notorious Mafia, Sicilian "Black Hand" Society, allegedly smuggled 300 pounds of cocaine to the U. S. from Germany by way of Italy.

Farm Roundup

Two-Headed Monster Born

Antagonistic Policies Are Being Nursed In Farm Program

WASHINGTON, April 6—(INS)—The mobilization program has given birth to a two-head monster nursed by the Department of Agriculture.

One of this monster's head says the way to beat down inflationary prices of farm commodities at groceries is to force them down by over-production.

The other head, meanwhile, is ready to gobble up farm commodities if prices go below a certain level.

The growing philosophy of the Agriculture Department's top brass is to urge farmers to produce so much that the supply will outstrip demand. This supply-demand situation, according to the economists, usually result in lower prices.

The existing farm law, on the other hand, demands that the government support farm prices so they cannot go very far down.

And the method spelled out by Congress to support farm prices commits the Agriculture Department to buy up enough of any commodity in abundance to make prices go down.

For instance: The nation now is entering the season for heavy butter production. If all the butter produced by farmers was permitted to be sold without price supports, butter prices would sink.

But under the law, prices can go only so far until the government must step in to buy the butter to assure farmers a certain price average.

And so on April 2, the Agriculture Department stepped up and bought 48,640 pounds of butter to make sure prices stay put.

Most consumer prices this year will never see less than 70 cents a pound, since Grade A butter is supported at 66 cents a pound.

The occasion will be the third annual Commanders banquet at the Cathedral at which time Past Commander Edward A. DeCarbo will be the guest of honor.

Upwards of several hundred people are expected to attend this event, which will start early in the evening with a 6:30 o'clock dinner. A speaker's program will continue the evening activities and an informal dance will bring the session to a close.

Veterans organizations throughout the county are to participate, and in addition national and state officers will be present.

Civilian Supplies Of Canned Goods Are To Be Restricted

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The Agriculture Department will restrict civilian supplies of canned vegetables in a few days and may follow up with an order cutting liquor production.

Department officials said that wartime restrictions on commercially canned vegetables will be applied next week. The civilian alcohol order is understood to be ready for application if it is needed.

Restrictions will be imposed on the big four vegetables—sweet corn, tomatoes, green peas and green and wax beans—and several lesser vegetables.

It was believed earlier that some fruits also would be affected, but they will escape next week's order.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Crushes

Fifteen-year-old Anne was in what her brother called a "gushy mood." "Oh, mother," she cried, "Miss Dalrymple is the most wonderful person. I wish I could be with her all the time. I've never known anyone so wonderful."

Mrs. Abraham was worried. Anne had never had many friends of her own age. She was timid and awkward and the girls didn't pay much attention to her. Now all the family heard was praise of her teacher. Anne wanted to buy her gifts, tried to stay after school as often as possible, and talked about Miss D. all the time.

Fortunately, Miss Dalrymple knew her young girls. She called Mrs. Abraham and asked whether Anne hadn't shown signs that were a bit disturbing. And then she explained that girls often develop "crushes" on a friendly, understanding teacher or other grown-up. "But," she went on to say, "I think we can work it out all right. I'm helping Anne to get to know some of the other youngsters in school. I think before long, she'll be thinking I'm terribly old and wonder how she could have thought I was so wonderful."

"Crushes" often offer an opportunity for a girl to take a first important step in becoming more social, in learning how to get along with people more effectively. Unless they continue and unless the object of the youngster's adoration doesn't know how to handle the situation. We shouldn't be too worried.

Union High Will Present Plays

Two big shows in place of one will be on the Union High School Senior play's program scheduled for Friday evening, April 27, in the school auditorium.

The first presentation will be a one act play, "Thursday's At Home," a farce by Mae Howley Barry.

The Senior play is entitled, "We Shook the Family Tree," dramatized by Perry Clark, and is adapted from the book by Hildegarde Dolson.

Mrs. Helen King, dramatic instructor at Union, is directing the plays. At present the casts are busy rehearsing for the performance scheduled during the latter part of the month. The plays are good laugh-provoking material, and all in all will provide an entertaining evening for all who attend.

East New Castle Grange Players Score Success

East New Castle Grange gave the first performance of the mirth-provoking comedy, "Where's Grandma?" to a capacity audience Thursday evening.

"Where's Grandma?" written by Priscilla Wayne and Wayne Sprague, was directed by Mrs. Pearl Glasser, with Mrs. William Glasser as assistant director.

The cast included:

Grandma ..... Helen Graham
Gretchen Blake ..... Betty Hunt
Bob Blake ..... Joe Skiba
Jack Worley ..... Dave Fisher
Lucy King ..... Pattie Currie
Arline Truesdale Eleanor Glasser
Carol Worley Eleanor Leonhardt
Midnight ..... Henry Wellhausen
Dahlia ..... Frances Currie

"Where's Grandma" will entertain everyone, even the most critical. The lines are full of punch, plenty of good stage action, an attractive set and good make-up department.

Jack Worley, played by Dave Fisher, whose ad libbing was worthy of a professional, gave a good convincing performance, the like of which hasn't been seen on the amateur stage for some time.

Midnight (Henry Wellhausen); Dahlia (Frances Currie), and Gretchen (Betty Hunt), also gave excellent performances.

Between acts Mariland Hughes entertained the waiting audience with several songs. "Gypsy Song" and "Alice Blue Gown" were two of Miss Hughes' numbers. Miss Eleanor Stroud accompanied Miss Hughes.

East New Castle Grange will present another performance of "Wheres' Grandma" Friday evening, April 6. Curtain time is eight o'clock.

Greenglass To Be Sentenced In Spy Case

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, April 6—Ex-Army Sergeant David Greenglass, who turned over to a Russian spy ring a cross section sketch of the atom bomb later dropped on Hiroshima, will be taken to Federal Court today for sentencing on his guilty plea.

Sentence on the 29-year-old former technician at the Los Alamos, N. M., A-bomb installation will be pronounced by Judge Irving R. Kaufman who yesterday doomed to the electric chair Greenglass' sister and brother-in-law, Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

Greenglass, whose sketch was adjudged precise enough to have given the Russians a clear idea of how to construct the atom bomb worked out by America's best scientific brains, testified against the Rosenbergs.

Ethel Rosenberg, 35, and Julius, 32, were the first United States citizens in the nation's history of civil jurisprudence to be sentenced to death for espionage in behalf of a foreign power.

DOG SAVES DAY

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ill — His collie dog rescued James Watters from possible serious injury by a 1,200-lb. Guernsey bull. The bull attacked Watters and the horse he was riding, throwing the rider to the ground. The dog grabbed the bull by the nose while Watters fled to safety.

The last horse-drawn streetcar was taken off New York's streets in August, 1917.

Calvary Tabernacle Chooses Officers

One of the most progessive years in its history was reported at the annual congregational meeting of Calvary Gospel Tabernacle.

During the past year work was completed on the auditorium with the installation of pews, carpeting, and further beautifying of the interior. Increased interest and growth in the spiritual life and ministry kept pace with material improvements. The church treasurer, A. H. Robb, reported the largest attained budget in the life of the church with over $10,000 expended on missions and benevolences.

The following persons were chosen by the elders: J. K. Peterson, Sr., Elmer Delancy and Paul Boyle; trustees, Gerald Mooney, Kenneth Patton, and Edgar Borger. Louis Mooney was elected Bible school superintendent with Paul Boyle, assistant superintendent. A. H. Robb and J. K. Peterson, Sr., were re-elected to the offices of treasurer and financial secretary respectively. For church secretary, Mrs. William Walters was re-elected; while Mrs. Elmer Delancy, Mrs. Kenneth Clark, and Mrs. George Hockenberry, Sr., were chosen for church auditors. Arthur Snyder was elected head usher.

Calvary Gospel Tabernacle, denominationally unaffiliated, is a member church of the Independent Fundamental Churches of America and of the American Council of Christian Churches.

Spell Of The Orient Gets Hold On Many Americans

By FRANK CONNIFF
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, April 6.—(INS)—You have to live out here for a while to understand the grasp Asia holds on many Americans.

The so-called spell of the Orient is more than just a rumor. It becomes something tangible once you have been exposed over a period of time to the fascination of this teeming continent.

Back where I come from, on the East Coast of the United States, interest in Asia has always been practically nil. New Yorkers and New Englanders, trussed by so many links to Europe, spent little time meditating on the Far East and its turbulent problems.

War Failed To Alter Attitude

Even World War II failed to significantly alter the attitude. Service men who participated in the Pacific war and their families were naturally aware of its existence. But Asia remained essentially a land of mystery, a location set for travelogues, a distant place mentioned in the communiques.

I was always struck by the fact that a few Americans were positively hepped-up about Asia. Their pre-occupation with its future puzzled me. The problems of Europe were foremost in the minds of most easterners—if we thought about global issues at all.

Now I am beginning to understand the compulsion of vast, swarming Asia. If anything, I have gone to the other extreme. The haggling over Europe seems picayune while the explosive issues of the Orient remain unsolved.

I think the divergence of thought about the reality of Asia helps to explain last week's hassel between the State Department on one side and General MacArthur on the other.

Seems Incredible

To Americans out here, it seems incredible that the department charged with administering American foreign policy would treat Korea with such extraordinary ineptness. To people in this theater, Korea and its implications are the most important questions facing the world today.

Undoubtedly our perspective is impaired by proximity to the area. It is so evident that UN prestige throughout all Asia hangs on our showing in that bitter slab of land that we cannot fathom Washington's consignment of it to secondary importance.

With the big Asiatic canvas in mind, Gen. MacArthur made a statement that seemed shrewdly aimed to take advantage of Oriental psychology. But back in Washington, where Europe and its future holds the limelight, the State Department chose to ignore its significance.

Baffled All Out Here

The Washington reaction absolutely baffled everyone out here—from longtime partisans of General MacArthur to equally inveterate critics of the supreme commander. For once opinion in Tokyo was unanimous.

We had bludered badly. The State Department and Secretary of Defense Marshall had done a great disservice to the UN cause in Asia. This fact screamed from all the give-and-take between Washington and Tokyo.

At the bottom of the controversy, I am convinced, was the inability of our State Department to understand the meaning of Korea to Asia and of Asia to the entire world.

I have only been out this way since last July and am by no means an old Asiatic hand. But the tour of duty has been enough to enamour me of the area. Whatever happens to Asia has meaning for all the big, wide, wonderful world.

Begin To Understand

Now I begin to understand the pre-occupation of Russia with Korea and china down through the decades. Lenin knew whereof he spoke when he stressed its importance to the world picture.

Stalin has never underrated it. One of his most ignominous failures was the collapse of the Red drive to seize power in China a quarter of a century ago. He did better the second time around.

Even though I've only been here a relatively short time, I know one thing for sure: America will pay a rugged price if it forgets Asia in its fascination with Europe.

Judy Garland Arrives In London

LONDON, April 6.—(INS)—A plump and smiling Judy Garland took some good-natured ribbing from the diet conscious London press today and did it in stride.

London newspapers called attention to the fact that on her arrival aboard the Ile De France the film actress presented a heftier appearance than in photographs taken five years ago.

To which Judy replied:

"It doesn't matter how plump I look. I may be awfully fat, but I feel awfully good.

"Slimming doesn't matter any more. When I was slim, the studio was happy but I wa.. ill and unhappy. Now I am going to do what I want."

The 28-year-old Judy is in London for a vaudeville appearance.

Her screams attracted Allied Sector police, who halted the car and arrested the driver. (International)

Discuss Use Of Fluorine In Water Supply For City

Should the local medical and dental societies here recommend it, fluorine will be placed in drinking water by the New Castle Water Company to prevent cavities in children's teeth.

Last night at the monthly session of the Medical Society, Dr. W. A. Womer, health superintendent of the city, presented the proposition of the water company treating water with fluorine to prevent tooth cavities.

According to Dr. Womer, the company is willing to install machinery to provide for placing the fluorine in the water if there is a demand for it. It already is being placed in drinking water in some cities.

The chemical neither changes the appearance, taste or smell of water. One part of fluorine is mixed with one millions part of water, Dr. Womer says.

Dr. Womer's presentation of the proposition last night in the Jameson Memorial hospital, followed a meeting between Health Director Richard I. Davis, Dr. W. A. Womer and officials and chemists of the water company.

After Dr. Womer presented the proposition, the Medical Society passed a motion arranging for a meeting with the Dental Society, where the proposal will be considered.

Will Seek To Help Small Manufacturers To Secure Contracts

HARRISBURG, April 6.—(INS)—The State Commerce department today announced plans to form regional defense production committees to help small manufacturers to secure contracts.

"The regional committees will aid the prime contractors in finding the plants where their subcontracting work actually can be done," explained Secretary Andrew J. Sordoni.

He said the committees will work along the same lines as regional production pools which have been organized in several areas in the state.

"This plan will be mutually beneficial to the small manufacturer and to large industries," according to Sordoni.

A regional defense coordinator selected by representatives of local industries will head the committee, he said.

The committees will compile information on available production facilities in their areas and will act as liaison between defense prime contractors and potential sub-contractors.

"They also will act as coordinators for groups of manufacturers who may be too small to act independently but who can qualify for prime contracts or sub-contracts through joint action," the secretary said.

Humane Society Auction To Be Conducted Tonight

Volunteer workers have been busily engaged throughout the day at the showrooms of the Morgan Motor Company, preparing for the benefit auction sale which will enable them to erect a commodius animal shelter in the county.

The event is scheduled to open at 7 o'clock, when a wide display of merchandise of all types will be offered in order that the goal of the recently chartered organization can be realized.

Many outstanding auctioneers from the tri-county district have willingly offered their services in order to make the project a reality. Local residents have gladly donated various items, both new and old which will be offered to the highest bidder during the event.

The sale will continue throughout the evening until everything on hand is disposed of by the auctioneers. Refreshment stands have been provided in order that visitors to the North Jefferson street show rooms may be accommodated.

Civil Court Ends Session

Last Case Heard This Morning

The current term of civil court ended today in the court house, with the conclusion of the case of Fred Macri against Seltzer and Young, tried in court room No. 1 before Judge W. Walter Braham.

It is alleged by Macri that he blacktopped the premises of the defendant company on Moravia street and that the company still owes him $550.

John Krivyanick won a complete victory in his case against Nicholas Krezo when the jury returned a verdict of $5060 for the plaintiff.

In this case Mr. Krivyanick claimed he had entrusted the defendant with his money instead of putting it in a bank. Sometime ago he made demand for the money in order to make a trip to Czechoslovakia. The defendant admitted having $1000 of Mr. Krivyanick's money but denied further liability. Mr. Krivyanick sued for the $5060 and got a verdict.

SEARCH FOR MAN WANTED

County Detective Howard C. Klebe has enlisted the aid of police of Pennsylvania and Ohio to find Mont L. Sweesy, a public accountant of New Castle, who is wanted on charges of fraudulent conversion and embezzlement. One charge of fraudulent conversion has been entered in the office of Alderman Jess C. Kennedy.

Mr. Klebe claims Sweesy is wanted for bad checks in Grove City, in New Castle and other places.

In addition it is alleged that he swindled some clients in Youngstown out of $1900 after taking their money to invest and promising a return of three per cent per month. The bad check totals in New Castle amount to about $850, it is reported.

Sweesy cannot be found in New Castle and is believed to have fled the county.

HEAVY SENTENCE COURT

A heavy list of offenders has been readied for the next sentence court and if they all appear the sentence session will take most of the day.

Defendants are being ordered to appear for sentence. If they do not appear it is likely a bench warrant will be asked for to bring them in.

Football Player Is Under Arrest In Slaying Case

PITTSBURGH, April 6.—(INS)—Jeryr Nuzum, a halfback on the Pittsburgh Steeler professional football team, was under arrest today in connection with the two-year-old slaying of a New Mexico waitress.

The 26-year-old football player waived extradition to New Mexico and was enroute there with two state police officers to face a grand jury in connection with the death of Ovida Coogler, who was slain some time between March 31 and April 16, 1949.

Nuzum was taken into voluntary custody shortly after the girl's body was found near Las Cruces, but was cleared of implication at that time. Police said Nuzum was the last person to have seen the girl alive.

He denied any part in the girl's death, but has admitted being with her the night she disappeared.

A former New Mexico A&M football star, Nuzum works as a car salesman in Pittsburgh during the off-season months.

Witness Declares Man Rejoiced Over Russian Bomb News

PITTSBURGH, April 6.—(INS)—One of three communists being tried in Pittsburgh on sedition charges heard himself accused yesterday of rejoicing over the news of Russia's atom bomb blast.

Matt Cvetic, former FBI undercover agent, quoted Steve Nelson, western Pennsylvania communist leader, as saying:

"Now that we have the bomb, the enemy won't be so damned smart about starting a war."

Cvetic also quoted Nelson as saying:

"Next year, we will have to liquidate 25 million people in China before we have control of the country over there."

Cvetic is expected to undergo cross examination today.

The two others accused along with Nelson of violating the state's anti-sedition law are James Dolsen, Daily Worker correspondent, and Andrew Onda, a Communist party organizer for the steel industry.

Three Lose Lives As Boat Capsizes While Being Launched

CRESCENT CITY, Cal., April 6.—(INS)—Three coast guardsmen lost their lives and three others were rescued Thursday night when a boat they were attempting to launch from St. George reef lighthouse capsized.

The boat, a 36-foot cabin cruiser, was being lowered into the water from a cradle attached to the lighthouse. The bow line snapped and hurled the six sailors into the ocean.

Life rafts were tossed to the victims from the lighthouse. There was no other boat to launch. Two of the coast guardsmen got into the life raft, another put on the life jacket.

Before a boat was launched from Crescent City to race eight miles to the rescue, three of the men drowned.

Sorg Declares State Income Tax Not Dead

HARRISBURG, April 6.—(INS)—The proposed flat income tax defeated in the house Wednesday "is not dead", in the opinion of speaker Herbert P. Sorg.

He told representatives of local chambers of commerce and trade associations at Harrisburg that defeat of the one-half of one per cent levy could result in increases in present taxes.

"In my opinion," said Sorg, "a flat income tax is the most equitable broad based tax available."

Death Sentences Given Prominence In British Papers

LONDON, April 6.—(INS)—The British press reported today the death sentences meted out to the two convicted American atom bomb spies under banner headlines.

Front pages also displayed pictures of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg who were condemned to die and Morton Sobell who drew a 30-year term.

There was no immediate editorial comment on Federal Judge Irving Kaufman's decision to exact the supreme penalty in the cases of the Rosenbergs who were involved in the same spy ring as was Dr. Klaus Fuchs in supplying information to Russia.

Fuchs, German-born naturalized Briton, now is serving a 14-year term for his part in the conspiracy.

SCOTT TOWNSHIP DEPARTMENT GETS FIRE TRUCK

Looking over the fire truck they have purchased men of the Scott Township Volunteer Fire Department are planning on a bigger and better truck in the future. They are: (left to right) Marion Fry, driver; fire chief, Merle Bales, and fire police, Carl Kneram.

Members of the Scott township volunteer fire department are enthused over the progress they have made in organizing a fire department in two years. There are 190 active members of the department, and they have an active ladies auxiliary.

Although they have been organized, a regular fire truck was not secured until recently. The truck purchased has a 250-gallon pump with an auxiliary pump on the front of the truck and carries 225 feet of three and a quarter hose, plus all the necessary accessories.

"This is a used truck and it will only be temporary. We want to get a new truck when we have the building to put it in," declared Fire Chief Merle Bales. He added, "We are negotiating for property on route 19 in Harlansburg, to build a fire house on and we will build as soon as the weather permits."

Officers for the fire department are: fire chief, Merle Bales; captain, Henry Altman; first lieutenant, Tom Brown; driver, Marion Fry; assistant driver, John M. Stang.

Executive officers for the department are: president, Robert Peebles; vice president, Clair Burnside; secretary, Francis Boak; treasurer, Bill West.

Says America Is Going For Dancing In Big Way Now

BOSTON, April 6 — (INS) — A Boston University professor says America is going in for dancing in a big way to get its mind off troubled world conditions.

Miss Dorothy E. Koch, professor of physical education said, "it's a natural reaction. The people are reaching for something exciting to get their minds off Korea, the draft and other problems."

Etna High School Students Strike

ETNA, Pa., April 6.—(INS)—Two hundred of Etna high school's 300 students struck today to protest suspension of football coach Richard T. (Babe) Kelleher, rifle instructor and assistant football coach George Marisico and Edward Lee, English and physics teacher.

Superintendent Paul R. Maxwell met with a committee representing the strikers and asked them to return to classes.

Last Tuesday the school board suspended the three instructors and claimed decline of student attendance—caused by loss of students when nearby Shaler and West Deer townships built their own high schools—necessitated pruning the teaching staff.

T. H. Jeromiah, president of the school board, denied a report that Etna intends to drop sports, but admitted an athletic committee is studying the problem of continuing football. He said the suspended teachers will have first chance at any job opening.

Kelleher has coached at Etna the last 13 seasons.

Tin Can Supplies For Non-Perishable Foods Ordered Cut

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The government today cut supplies of tin cans for non-perishable foods, beer, pet food, lighter fluid, cosmetics and shaving cream another 10 to 15 percent to meet defense needs.

At the same time, the National Production Authority gave the military services special authority to obtain spare tires in all automobile "staff" cars purchased by the army, navy and air force.

Spare tires for civilian autos were banned this month by NPA although non-defense rubber allocations are running at almost the March rate.

NPA issued the new tin can order "to save tin for defense and defense supporting needs and to direct the production of tin cans into channels of most essential useage.

Place More Men In Jobs Here In Month Of March

Employment Office Attributes Increase To Business Upswing

According to Francis Maffei, manager of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service in New Castle, a total of 358 persons were placed in jobs in Lawrence county during the month of March 1951, compared to a February figure of 223.

Maffei attributed the increase to an upswing in business and an increase of employment activity.

There were three placed in professional-managerial, 51 in clerical sales, 81 in service, 48 in skilled, 50 in semi-skilled and 117 in unskilled occupations. Eight persons were also placed in farm work.

At the present time the office has 956 applicants who are actively seeking work, with 51 per cent of this number representing female workers. The male workers do not show a very enlightening picture for the New Castle area. Four per cent are under the age of 18, 20 per cent between 19 and 26, 18 per cent between 27 and 40, 35 per cent between 41 and 65, and 23 per cent of over 65.

The local manager explained that "There are now openings for approximately 250 men for registrations at the office."

A great deal of job openings exist in the local office in all fields of work, and all persons not working at the present time are encouraged to file their application with the State Employment office. A very critical shortage exists in the typing and stenographic field.

Osaly's Yoghurt
—PUTS A SPARKLE IN YOUR EYE
—PUTS A SPRING IN YOUR STEP
—AND GIVES YOU YOUNG IDEAS
19c HALF-PINT
HOW TO SERVE IT!
Fill your prettiest sherbet dish about three-quarters full of cold Yoghurt, then spoon fresh or frozen fruit over it. (Try strawberries, raspberries, crushed pineapple or sliced peaches.)
You'll also like Yoghurt on tossed salads, potato salad, and over most any hot vegetable. Especially good over mealy baked potatoes, or boiled new potatoes. For an out-of-this-world dessert treat, put generous spoonfuls of Yoghurt into halves of well-chilled Honeydew Melons!
Many people will like Yoghurt just as it comes from its sparkling glass container, but it is primarily a supplemental food—designed to be served in many, many ways, and to make the foods it accompanies taste twice as good as ever before!
WHAT YOGHURT DOES!
Modern diets consist mostly of pre-cooked, predigested foods. As a result, the stomach loses its natural germicidal action.
Yoghurt stimulates this action, and replenishes the needed gastric bacteria of which your system is robbed by an "over-refined" diet.
Yoghurt "tones up" your entire body; being slightly laxative, it works especially on the intestinal tract, keeping you in tune the natural, healthful way.
WHAT YOGHURT IS!
Yoghurt is a Cultured Whole Milk, snow-white in color, and of about the same consistency as a good custard.
It is processed from fresh, pasteurized homogenized Milk, and Yoghurt Culture, which consists of several different beneficial bacteria.
It has a clean, sparkling, tangy taste—just a little different from anything else you've ever tasted.
Yoghurt is the century-old health food of the people of the Balkans and South Asia.
These people are strong, virile, and exceptionally long-lived—and scientists attribute these characteristics to their diets, of which Yoghurt is a very important part.

Because of war curtailments, a man was carrying a grandfather's clock down a crowded main street to a repair shop. As the clock limited his vision, he unintentionally collided with a woman, knocking her down. After collecting her composure and packages, the woman struggled to her feet and scathingly inquired:

"Why don't you carry a wrist watch like everybody else?"

Cancer Figures For Past Year Are Released

Lawrence County Chapter of American Cancer Society, this week opened its crusade to raise $20,000 in its three-fold research, service, and education program.

Mrs. Blake H. Waldo, co-chairman of this year's crusade, has released 1950 statistics which reveal that $988 was spent to buy an auto-technician for a local hospital, for the purpose of examination of tissue and making diagnosis more certain, and that $250 was spent in tuition fees for hospital technicians to specialize in the Dr. Papanicolau smear test.

Other figures include: 12,000 surgical dressings furnished free of charge, 13 medically indigent cancer patients who received deep therapy treatments; and three men rehabilitated when there was a question of cancer although all proved to be non-malignant; and six hospital beds furnished cancer patients.

Other Services

Other services included 484 visits made by a registered nurse, giving bed baths, enemas, and sedation whenever needed; and aid to 22 not afflicted with cancer, but seeking the right agency for help.

A part of the educational program included the purchase of 75 textbooks for a hospital nursing school, and the distribution of 10,000 pieces of literature throughout the county.

Transportation was furnished patients to and from the hospital and doctor's offices. A speaker's bureau composed of members of the Lawrence County Medical Society served the county as did a moving film library which served 2,250.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania division and the Lawrence county unit administer the funds you contribute.

The service will be a part of the homecoming program in progress at the church which started last Sunday. Rev. C. ". Bookamer, a former pastor spoke on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, while Harry Mack, who pioneered the work, spoke on Thursday evening. Joseph Proctor has been directing the song services.

Proposes Tax On Gas Line Mileage In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, April 6—(INS)—A "privilege tax" on natural gas line mileage in Pennsylvania was proposed Thursday as the source of new revenue to redeem 440 million dollars worth of World War II veterans' bonus bonds.

The money collected under the graduated levy running up to $100 a mile would be poured into the bonus bonds sinking fund until the huge debt was retired.

The measure, co-sponsored by Republican Assemblymen W. Z. Scott, Carbon; and Edward Dunn, Northumberland, would impose taxes on the transmission lines according to pipe size.

The mileage tax for pipe would be: under 12 inches, $30; between 12 and 15 inches, $50; between 15 and 20 inches, $70; and 20 inches and over, $100.

State Police Arrest 173 Vehicle Drivers

Seventeen accidents occurred on county roads during March in which one person was killed and 15 injured, or one less injured than occurred during March of last year. The property damage amounted to $8,575. One hundred and seventy-three drivers were arrested in March for motor code violations.

Causes of the accidents were ascribed to speed or driving too fast for existing conditions, reckless driving and failure to signal.

The accidents occurred on U.S. Route 422 (4), Route 108 (3) and on Route 88 (2). The other accidents occurred on other roads.

State police travelled 10,841 miles in performing their duties in March.

Metropolitan Pittsburgh contains about 500 bridges and viaducts.

Red Sox And Yankees Picked To Battle It Out For AL Pennant

Tigers And Indians Other First Division Choices

By CHARLES EINSTEIN
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 6.—Picking the dikeliest pennant winner in the American league this season leaves you with mingled emotions, like the well-known gentleman who watches his mother-in-law drive over a cliff in his new automobile.

By every law known to baseball prophecy, the Boston Red Sox ought to waltz home the winner. That identical way of thinking already has disposed of the most successful manager in baseball history, Joe McCarthy, who gave up as Red Sox pilot in mid-season a year ago after seeing his club lose the pennant on the last day of the season both in 1948 and 1949.

If he'd stayed, he would have seen the Bostons blow it again in 1950—even more profoundly, if that were possible. This time they were favored more than ever and wound up third.

Here's the fact, though: In the American league in 1951, the Boston Red Sox, bulwarked by proved additional help in the persons of Lou Boudreau and pitchers Bill Wight and Ray Scarborough, are favored to win.

Yankees Picked Second

All that does is relegate the most successful baseball team of our time—the world champion New York Yankees—to the position of hopeful runners-up; if, that is, they can beat out the two other first-division finishers from a year ago, second place Detroit and fourth place Cleveland.

Both the Yanks and the Tigers, one-two finishers in 1950, have been hit hard by the drafting of ace pitching youngsters, the Yankees' Ed Ford and the Tigers' Art Houtteman. The Indians, under new manager Al Lopez, have lost the player-manager services of Boudreau, but otherwise they are largely intact from a year ago, still have the great righthander Bob Lemon and have acquired infielder George Stirnweiss from the St. Louis Browns and two prized outfielders in Orestes Minoso and Harry (Suitcase) Simpson.

Mantle May Be Called

Pending final word from the draft board which already has classified his 4-F, 19-year-old Mickey Mantle, slugging rookie outfielder up from class C ball, may be the new DiMaggio.

Just to make sure, however, the Yankees still have the old DiMaggio—and practically all of the other pros who helped them cash their 17th A. L. pennant in 1950.

However close the American league may be—and it can be plenty close—it undoubtedly will be restricted to the four clubs listed above. This prediction should prove a safer one than those made in 1950 when, in addition to the top four, the Philadelphia A's were given a look-in for the flag.

(Tomorrow: Phils, Dodgers, Giants, Braves.)

Globetrotters Win Again, 67-56

CLEVELAND, April 6.—(INS)—Reece "Goose" Tatum of the Harlem Globetrotters is billed as the Clown Prince of basketball but he is no laughing matter as far as the college All-Americans are concerned.

The long-armed, fun-loving guard paced the Trotters to their fourth victory over the Collegians, 67-56, last night before a near capacity crowd of 11,657 fans at the Cleveland arena.

Marquess Haynes, regarded as the finest dribbler in the game, finished two points behind Tatum with 15.

Williams-Pruden Being Examined

CHICAGO, April 6.—(INS)—Lightweight champion Ike Williams and welterweight Fitzie Pruden take pre-fight physican examinations in Chicago today for their 10-round non-title bout next Wednesday.

Williams, who signed recently for a May title defense in New York, has been threatened with loss of his crown by the National Boxing Association for his supposed reluctance to defend the championship.

Cadet Tournament Deadline Today, Begin Play Monday

A contract deadline of Friday, April 6, today, has been set by Harold Pears, physical director of the Y.M.C.A., for entry in the Cadet Tournament, scheduled to begin Monday, April 9, in the Y.M.C.A.

Arrangements have been completed for a 12-team tournament. High school teams from the following schools are now entered: Ellwood, New Wilmington, Mt. Jackson, Union, and New Castle. Also entered, are the Hi-Landers.

Teams having taken out contracts are requested to turn them in as quickly as possible.

Fazio Leads Masters Play; Snead Second

Ben Hogan Third On Opening Day

By JOHN R. HENRY
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6—The Masters Golf Tournament looked today like a bold reprint of the U. S. Open Championship of last year except for a fellow named Snead.

George Fazio, a lightly regarded Pennsylvania, led the handpicked field of 64. He could hardly believe he was ahead as he teed off for the second 18 of the 72-hole medal play grind.

It was all too familiar to Fazio, however, when he saw Chicago's Lloyd Mangrum and Fort Worth's Ben Hogan bearing down on him along with slammin' Sammy Snead.

Snead Runner-Up

Fazio, a 36-year-old ex-caddy from Conshocken, Pa., shot a four sub-par 68 yesterday through a pleasant mixture of superb putting and down-the-middle driving.

Snead, the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., ace, finished the first 18 holes with a 69. So did Mangrum. Hogan had a 70.

Fazio produced his pace-making round with just 30 putts. He appeared to be in trouble only on the 10th hole but emerged from a sand trap form a par.

Demaret Falters

A record 5,000 fans for opening day were in the galleries, but the man who showed them all was so lightly regarded at the outset that few followed him. Fazio commented:

"Maybe that helps. No trouble concentrating on the game."

The initial round was not without its heartbreaks for fellows like defending champion Jimmy Demaret of Houston, Tex., and Australia's Jim Ferrier, top money winner in the 1951 professional circuit.

Demaret dropped off the pace to finish with a heap of other unfortunates at 76. Ferrier was two strokes better at 74.

Titan Baseball Card Announced

The Westminster college baseball team opens its 1951 schedule against Alliance April 21.

The Titans, coached by Charles "Buzz" Ridl, will play a nine-game schedule. Geneva and Gannon have been dropped from last year's schedule and have been replaced by two new foes, W. & J. and Clarion.

The schedule as announced by Athletic Director Grover C. Washabaugh: April 21, Alliance away; April 24, Slippery Rock, away; April 30, Duquesne, home; May 5, Slippery Rock, home; May 8, Clarion, home; May 10, Duquesne, away; May 12, W. & J., away; May 15, Alliance, home; May 18, Allegheny, away.

Indians And Dodgers Win Over Phillies And Giants

(By International News Service)

The Brooklyn Dodgers may not be providing grapefruit circuit fans with top quality baseball, but they sure are giving them quantity.

The Dodgers played their seventh extra-inning game in nine starts yesterday and their third straight overtime with the Philadelphia Phillies at Jacksonville, Fla. An overflow crowd of 7,973 fans watched the Brooks beat the National League champions, 5 to 4, on a tenth inning ground rule double by Rocky Bridges that scored Peewee Reese from third.

Bill "Swish" Nicholson, making a determined comeback bid following his hospitalization last year with diabetes, tied the game in the ninth inning for the Whiz Kids with a tremendous two-run homer.

The Cleveland Indians and New York Giants inaugurated the 17th year of their spring rivalry with the Indians winning out, 6 to 5 in the ninth inning when Ray Boone singled home the deciding run. Cleveland had to go uphill all the way after spotting the Durochermen five runs in the first inning.

Things really got hot in New Orleans where the Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2 to 1 in a game abbreviated by a fire in the sixth inning. The fire destroyed part of the stands at Pelican stadium but fortunately no one was injured.

Boston's Red Sox pummeled Savannah of the Sally League, 15 to 0. The Bosox crashed out five home runs, including two by Dom DiMaggio and one each by Ted Williams, Lou Boudreau, and Mike Guerra.

Other scores:

Cincinnati Reds 9, Washington Senators 5; Boston Braves (air team) 4, Oklahoma City 3; St. Louis Browns 14, Brooke Gen. Hospital 9; New York Yankees 13, San Antonio 10 (night); and St. Louis Cardinals 9, Columbus (Sally League) 4 (night). The Boston Braves' train team and the Chicago White Sox were rained out.

Farrell's McCoy Named To State Scholastic Team

Basketball Poll Rates Julius First Among Vote-Getters

An Associated Press basketball poll released Thursday reveals that Julius McCoy of Farrell is the number one vote-getter in the state scholastic basketball, and one of the two juniors given all state, first team recognition.

The left-handed wizard threw in 477 points in WPIAL competition to break the scoring record while leading his team into state championship play.

Julius was almost a unanimous choice in the opinion of western writers and received votes from as far east as Philadelphia, even before the state playoffs.

Other representatives from Section III, are: Marion Lampkins, senior center from Farrell, was picked on fifth team, and Carl Racketa of Sharon, on honorable mention.

Redskins Announce 1951 Football Card In National League

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(INS)—The Washington Redskins today announced their 12-game schedule for the 1951 National Professional Football League season.

The Redskins' six opponents in Washington will be the New York Giants, October 7; Chicago Cardinals, October 21; Chicago Bears, November 4; Los Angeles Rams, November 25; Philadelphia Eagles, December 2; and Pittsburgh Steelers, December 16.

The Washington eleven will meet the Lions in Detroit, the Eagles in Philadelphia, the Giants in New York, the Cardinals in Chicago, the Browns in Cleveland and the Steelers in Pittsburgh.

But dates for these games were not announced because of the League rule that each team announce only its home games.

Henry Jordans Wins From Scranton Boxer

BROOKLYN, April 6.—Henry Jordan of Buffalo defeated Benny Lloyd of Scranton in eight rounds last night at the East Parkway arena. Lloyd apparently injured his hand in the sixth round because he rarely used it after that round and when he did, punched with it very lightly. They are middleweights.

Freetown, Siera Leone, was so named because it was set up in 1787 as a homeland for freed slaves.

New Castle Auto Dealers Bowling League Finishes

The New Castle Auto Dealers duxpin league came to a successful close Wednesday evening with the J. R. Rick No. 1 team winning the National league title and the Chambers Motor No. 1 team the American league title.

The two teams will play for the championship of the entire league at the Neshannock alleys Friday, April 13, it was announced by Wayne Harper today.

Thursday evening, April 19, the entire league will have its annual banquet and entertainment at the New Castle Country club at 6:30 o'clock, it was announced. A fine evening of fun has been lined up.

Frisina Anxious To Report Here

Frisina And Butler Keystone Combination

Joe Frisina, 22, new young shortstop of the New Castle Indians sent a letter to President Al Scarazzo, today, saying, "I am anxious to report to New Castle, will be on hand for the opening workout Monday, April 16th—in good shape."

Frisina who starred with Oil City last year hit .325 and had 17 doubles, 12 triples and three home runs. He is a right-handed thrower and left-handed batter. Frisina had 83 RBI's last year. In 416 trips to the plate he only fanned 19 times and drew 66 walks.

Frisina is being counted on heavily this year by the New Castle Indians, as they line up a strong infield, that will also entain Chet Butler, former Johnstown and Vandergrift star, a .335 hitter last year. Butler will probably be at second.

William B. Leckonby, coach of Lehigh's first undefeated football team has received the George Gipp award for outstanding grid accomplishments.

Management of Bee Bee Wright, Pittsburgh welterweight who has lost only six bouts in 51 starts, has been turned over to Nat Rodgers, former matchmaker for the Madison Square Garden and the 20th Century Sporting club.

Felton Scores Eighth Round TKO

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—(INS)—Lester Felton, 148, of Detroit, scored an eighth-round technical knockout over Bobby Lee, 148, of Baltimore, in a scheduled 10-round fistic feature at the Met last night.

Felton handed Lee a boxing lesson for seven rounds and then pounded him helpless against the ropes with hard right hooks.

In the sixth-round semi-final, Santa Bucca, 143, Philadelphia, outpointed Dick Stern, 139½, Reading. Bucca had Stern in trouble in the third and fourth.

There are 692,325 adults serving in the Boy Scouts of America as volunteer leaders.

Walt Dropo Will Rejoin Red Sox

BOSTON, April 6.—(INS)—Red Sox first baseman Walt Dropo had his broken wrist examined Wednesday and immediately made plans to rejoin his teammates in Augusta, Ga.

Dropo's wrist, injured in an exhibition game, was examined by Dr. Paul Butler who removed the cast on the right wrist. The wrist was taped for support.

Dropo expressed hope he will be able to open the season at his regular position.

There are approximately 100 species of flea, of which about one-third are American.

Pittsburgh Team Defeats Hershey, 5-1

(By International News Service)

The Pittsburgh Hornets, the team that barely made the American Hockey league playoffs, will take on the runaway Cleveland Barons tomorrow night in the opening round of the finals for the circuit's Calder cup trophy.

The Hornets bounced the Hershey Bears, 5-1, last night for their sixth straight victory in the playoffs and a berth in the finals against the Barons.

The first two games of the best of seven title round will be palyed in Cleveland with the next three contests slated for Pittsburgh. Should a sixth and seventh game be necessary, the teams will return to Cleveland.

The Barons, winners of the leagues' percentage title, rolled over Buffalo in four straight. The Hornets swept by Springfield before knocking off Hershey in three straight.

Indianapolis Gets Merson On Option

PITTSBURGH, April 6.—(INS)—Second baseman Johnny Merson on Thursday was optioned from the Pittsburgh Pirates to the Indianapolis Indians in the American Association.

Merson, who played with New Orleans the last two seasons after taking spring training with the Bucs, will join Indianapolis in Chattanooga today.

Father Time apparently can't convince veteran outfielder Wally (Holy) Moses today that, at 41, the Philadelphia Athletics' flychaser should be heading for his old rockin' chair.

A reorganization of boxing should start with a revision of ticket prices. It should include a new heavyweight division to enable the old and decrepit to fight against each other for something that might be called the moth-eaten diadem.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

NATIONAL BOXING ASSOCIATION has rated Joe Louis, past king of heavyweight punchdom, as No. 1 contender for the crown which now adorns the brow of Ezzard Charles. . . . Three thousand, one hundred pheasant chicks will be reared this spring and summer in Lawrence county. At the age of 12 weeks, they will be distributed in rural districts. Of course, not all the 3,100 will survive weather conditions and vermin, but sufficient should live to provide good shooting in the fall. One of those who is an expert in rearing chicks is Andy Conti of the Oakland Sportsmen's club. . . . Harry Mack, local service station operator, reports Farrell-Allentown floor titular tickets were scalped at $10, in Philadelphia. The ordinary price was $2. . . . The twenty-ninth annual national convention of the Izaak Walton league is in session in Cincinnati. . . . Burning dead grass and leaves in fields, swales and along roadsides does not hasten spring but it does destroy vegetation used by rabbits and ground nesting birds. Fencerow burning may force pheasants to nest in meadows which are likely to be mowed before the young are able to leave. . . . According to Raymond Camp, author of a fish story in Colliers, April 6 issue, at Pend Oreille, Idaho, two years ago, a woman who fished for Kamloops (of the Rainbow tribe) had a jeweler make a special spoon of solid gold and platinum, with 14 diamonds and two rubies added for brilliance. She lost the lure to a big Kamloop the first time it was cast. Silly . . . 'Tis about time for Lin Dilks to begin training for his endurance race against horses at Canfield this summer. No doubt, Frank Jerry, the walk man, will also start training soon.

Pirates Lose To Cubs, 2-1

Grandstand Burns At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 6—(INS)—It was hot enough in the Pirates Pelican Ball Park in New Orleans yesterday, what with a blaze that caused $25,000 damage, still the Pirates could not muster enough fire to beat the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs won 2-1.

Con Dempsey was the losing pitcher. The Pirates scored the lone tally in the fourth. The Cubs scored in the third and fourth.

The grand stand fire, which originated in the business office, was discovered by Pirate rookie Stan Milankovich as he was warming up.

He shouted a warning to the writers in the press box that the fire was spreading rapidly underneath them. The stairway to the press box and a portion of the roof were destroyed.

When a fighter is through, his pay should be reduced to the scale for preliminary boys and the customers should be charged accordingly. The fights by old-timers who have seen their best days usually are not even as good as the ones between young and hustling beginners.

Antlerless Deer Bill Before Senate

HARRISBURG, April 6.—(INS)—A House-approved bill depriving county sportsmen's groups of the power to overrule game commission resolutions for open seasons on anterless deer was before the Senate today.

The measure, introduced by Assemblymen George A. Goodling (R) York, and Harris G. Breth (D) Clearfield, also would establish resident hunters' license for anterless deer.

The act repeals a 1939 amendment permitting 50 per cent of the licensed hunters in any county to veto an open season on anterless deer in that county.

Sportsmen in 14 counties took advantage of the provision last year after the game commission declared open season on the game.

The licenses for hunting anterless deer would be issued on payment of a $1.10 fee only to holders of regular resident hunting licenses.

Landowners and lessees in any county would be permitter to bag anterless deer without special licenses in the county in which they reside.

Special permits issued for antreless deer hunting at a cost of $1 under existing law would be eliminated.

Two members of the Penn State soccer team currently on tour in the Middle East were cited for outstanding scholarship during the past semester. Singled out by the School of Physical Education and Athletics were Clarence Buss, of Watsontown, and Gus Bigott, of Caracas, Venezuela.

Harold "Hap" Irwin, of Valley Forge, currently in Iran with the Penn State soccer team on its good-will sports mission, fills a "bit" part in the newly-completed movie, "This Is Penn State," which depicts student life on the campus. Irvin, a second semester freshman, is an Air Force veteran and graduate of Girard college.

Frank Oceak, manager of the York, Pa., baseball team in the Interstate League last year, has been named to manage the Pirate farm club at Charleston, S. C., in 1951. He succeeds Rip Sewell, who moved on to New Orleans.

Royals Favored To Defeat 'Knicks' For NBA Title

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 6.—(INS)—The best four-of-seven series for the National Basketball Association championship begins tomorrow night with the Royals favored to defeat the New York Knickerbockers.

The playoff schedule announced by league president Maurice Podoloff gives a slight edge to the western division titlists.

Tomorrow's opener and the second game on Sunday will be played in Rochester; the third and fourth games will be played in New York April 11 and 12; the fifth game (if necessary) will be at Rochester April 15, the sixth game (if necessary) will take place in New York April 18 and the seventh game (if necessary) is scheduled for Rochester April 21.

To have a winning football team apparently costs money, and if you have no gate receipts you have no money, so the best thing you can do is cut out television, which cuts into the gate receipts.

Robinson Wins Decision Fight

Mims Gives Champ Tough Battle

MIAMI, Fla., April 6.—(INS)—Sugar Ray Robinson punched out a 10-round unanimous decision over Holly Mims in Miami last night but the Washington, D. C., youngster made Robinson's first fight as middleweight champion a tough one all the way.

Mims opened an old cut over Robinson's left eye in the first round and stung the champion with solid lefts to the jaw.

Ray took command in the second and sent Mims to the canvas with a right and left to the head. Mims opened up briefly in the fourth with a series of lefts but a pair of lefts and a whistling right from Robinson sent him reeling backwards as the round ended.

Mims—though outweighed and outboxed—was the aggressor thereafter and the decision was booed by the crowd of 6,000.
